

Reviews for Spaceship Earth: What Can I Do?

Here is what folks are saying:

"This woman taught me more in an hour performance about what I can do to help save our planet than I've learned in the past 10 years!"

"I thought I was really green but I learned some new things!"

"I thought I knew everything about recycling but I guess not"

"I really liked the way you presented the information - you didn't sound preachy."

"It was very informative and enjoyable!"

"Your music is brilliant!"

Reviews:

"Spaceship earth is not really a metaphor: we've got one planet, and it's experiencing unprecedented mechanical difficulties. This presentation helps remind us how we can do our part to get it back on course."

- Bill McKibben Best selling author and founder of 350.org

"Laurie's "What Can I Do?" Spaceship Earth is powerful!"

- Jared Polis- Congressman D-CO 2nd District

"Friday evening, Sept 21st, 2012, Eldorado Canyon State Park hosted Laurie D's Multi-media Environmental Concert with great success and rave reviews. What an eye opener for all of us who attended and a reminder to do our share to help the planet. I will remember my cloth grocery bags and never use plastic ones again. Laurie is passionate about what she is doing and will make a difference. My new mantra is "Reduce, Reuse, Recycle " thanks to her. I would like to see this concert performed in schools and parks and also local events."

- Constance Roth- GOCO Interpreter Eldorado Canyon State Park

"Laurie Dameron gave her environmental multi-media presentation in Laramie on Saturday, November 3rd at Coal Creek Coffee. She kept the audience engaged with a wide-ranging sampling of environmental issues, plus solutions that each member of the audience could take up to help curb environmental problems. Everybody in the audience learned a little about environmental issues, and they all enjoyed the show!"

- Erik Molvar- Wildlife Biologist and Executive Director Biodiversity Conservation Alliance

"Laurie Dameron's Environmental presentation is an excellent mixture of live music and valuable information. We only have one earth. The original songs and presentation make a somewhat nerdy subject interesting and comprehensive. She can entertain and explain and bring us all together with songs."

- Beverly Sencenbaugh - Palmer High School Teacher Colorado Springs

"What Can I Do?" is very educational without being preachy. Laurie presents an entertaining and informative show."

- Bobbi Benesh - Adult programming Loveland Public Library

"Laurie presented a dynamic multimedia show which was engaging on multiple levels. Utilizing a slide presentation as a vehicle for compelling information and singing original songs inspired students and staff alike. The message Laurie conveys in this unique and entertaining way is one of responsibility and hope. Students walked away with an increased awareness regarding the various ways that citizens can help mitigate environmental degradation."

- David Elmore-Dean of Students at Watershed School Boulder, CO

"I have seen Laurie D's presentation three times already and I'm a huge fan. I enjoy the music, the stunning photography, and the practical advice she gently offers. But what I love most is soaking in the heartfelt passion she has for protection of this exquisite Earth."

- Daniel Ziskin, PhD - Beeco, Director of Technology

"I really took a lot out of attending your really classy and artistically produced, presentation on the ecology of Mother Earth. I can't get the image of that horrific cesspool of plastic goo floating around in the pacific. I have cut my use of plastic bags in half, and I can do better."

- Jeane R Lafayette, CO

"This is a show everyone should see! Laurie is a fabulous musician and entertainer. She is passionate and the point she is making is very important."

- RV Boulder, CO

"Laurie's music made the trip to this outlying location entirely worthwhile. Laurie's a gifted songwriter who weaves her powerful and moving music into a very genuine and likeable call to action to be better stewards of our planet."

- Diana Boulder, CO

"I saw her presentation tonight and wish the rest of you would do so too and spread her words on saving the planet because if we don't, there will be no life, no jazz , no nothing; it behooves all of us to start doing stuff; so go and see the rest of her shows for Fringe Festival."

- Miriam P Boulder, CO

"This woman taught me more in an hour performance about what I can do to help save our planet than I've learned in the past 10 years!"

- Stacy

"I think the strongest aspect of Laurie's presentation is her use of mixed media. She was able to hold the students' focus as she moved between video, photos and music. The novelty of the presentation captured and held student attention so they were able to absorb her message."

- Angela Mundt teacher at New America Schools

"These events are so educational AND entertaining! I highly recommend for anyone wanting to learn more about environmental efforts in Colorado and beyond. Even if you're already an expert, it's worth engaging with one of the "What Can I Do?" events!"

- Rachel Grace Gurfinkel - Field organizer Conservation Colorado

"I loved hearing your music and seeing your presentation yesterday "What Can I Do?" I'm a crazy person about recycling, and I learned some more things about how to improve my imprint. Your music is splendid!"

- Bernadette Hunter, LPC - Powerful Performance, Master the Inner Game

"Laurie's presentation is a must see. It was very informative. She gave the facts, but she also told us what we can do to help. I also enjoyed her weaving in her music and beautiful photos. Great job!"

- Michele Guarino, President BPW Boulder
