

Member spotlight: Jaime Sammons

Interviewed by: Val Cordray

Jaime Sammons was born into our congregation at Emanuel. She is the middle daughter of Brian and Andrea Sammons and the granddaughter of Ervin and Geraldine Wagner.

During her high school years, Jaime was a valuable player on the Lady Chipps basketball team and participated on the track and field team running in the 4x400, 400m, 4x200 and 4x800 events.

Jaime graduated from Kent State University in 2020 with a Bachelor of Science in Education. She teaches freshmen and senior English and Financial Literacy at Orrville High School. Jaime is also the head coach for the girls track team and heads the yearbook staff.

Jaime loves to read and enjoys playing pickle ball. She recently moved into a new apartment in Doylestown with her sister Ava.

Jaime's hopes and dreams for our church are to grow our membership by attracting younger families with children. Her fondest memories involve youth group activities with Brenda Barnes as the leader. It was a loving experience for her and a feeling she hopes other kids can find at Emanuel.
