

Israeli violinmaker Amnon Weinstein worked to restore violins recovered from the Holocaust. Some were played by Jewish prisoners in concentration camps; others belonged to the Klezmer musical culture, which was all but destroyed by the Nazis. We have an opportunity to hear some of the restored violins played in concert.

Violins of Hope will be performed by the Ft. Wayne Philharmonic Orchestra on Saturday, November 23. A bus will be driving a group to Fort Wayne for the 7:30 pm concert. The bus ride and the tickets are at no cost. The bus will be leaving South Bend around 3:45 pm. RSVP's must be received by 3 pm, Monday, November 4 - call Temple at 574-234-4402 if you would like to attend. Snacks will be provided. For more information about the concert <https://violinsofhopefw.org/>

Sponsored by the Kurt and Tessye Simon Foundation and the Kurt and Tessye Simon Fund for Holocaust Remembrance

The Kurt and Tessye Simon Foundation and the Kurt and Tessye Simon Fund for Holocaust Remembrance invite members of Temple to a performance by the Ft. Wayne Philharmonic Orchestra of Violins of Hope, on November 23, 2019. Tickets and bus transportation to Ft. Wayne is provided. Please sign up today on the office door or call or email Nanci before October 31.

