

Scan for our website

Scan for Zoom link registration

Politicians in Petticoats: The Women of the Abolitionist Movement

Monday, January 9, 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Westmont Public Library or Zoom.

Please register to receive the Zoom link.

During the abolitionist movement, many women took a stand and raised their voices to help bring light to those with even less rights than themselves. We will explore some of these women and how their voices changed the course of the anti-slavery movement with historian Lauren Szad.