

Women Owned Businesses

Thursday, October 21, 2021 7:00 - 8:00

Location of program TBD

There are 114% more women entrepreneurs in the U.S. than there were 20 years ago. Mallory Burke and Kelly K. James are two such women.

Mallory Burke is a senior at Elmhurst University studying biology and psychology. She plans to go into medicine and become a surgeon. She is also the owner of GrillGirlz LLC. Mallory will share how she turned a small loan from her parents into a thriving business.

Kelly K. James launched her career as a full time freelance journalist in 1997. Since then the former lawyer has written and ghostwritten more than three dozen books and several thousand articles for a variety of print and online markets. She's the author of books including Six Figure Freelancing: The Writer's Guide to Making More Money, Second Edition, and lives in Downers Grove with her son and daughter. www.kellykjames.net

Join us in hearing these inspiring women talk about their journey through building their own successful business.

An AAUW branch business meeting follows the program at about 8 p.m.
