10 REASONS TO VISIT CURAÇAO

1. TOP LOCATION

The largest of the ABC islands in the Dutch Caribbean, Curaçao is located on the outer fringes of the hurricane belt, only 2.5 hours from Miami, with average temperatures between 78–82 degrees year-round.

2. ACCESSIBILITY

Easily reachable by plane or ship, the island is serviced by several cruise lines and major airlines offering frequent non-stop flights. Fly direct from Miami, Charlotte, New York, Toronto, Amsterdam, Bogota, and a range of other key cities, or cruise seamlessly into Curaçao from nearby surrounding islands. US and Canadian citizens do not need visa to travel to the island.

3. DIVING AND ADVENTURE

A top diving destination with over 70 designated dive sites and world-class snorkeling. The island's unique rugged terrain is also ideal for adventure activities, including hiking, mountain biking, and ATV rides.

4. BEACHES

Featuring more than 35 beautiful beaches, it's easy to find your ideal beach here. With secluded and picturesque cove-like inlets and calm, crystal blue waters, many consider Curaçao's beaches to be the island's best-kept secret.

5. HISTORY

The Historic Area of Willemstad Inner City and Harbor (with over 750 sites and monuments) was designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1997.

6. HERITAGE AND CULTURE

Home to 55 diverse cultures, Dutch, English, Spanish, and Papiamentu are widely spoken on island. Rich heritage and culture is still visible today, seen in the colonial buildings, plantation homes, forts, renowned museums and the Mikvé-Israel Emanuel Synagogue, the Western Hemisphere's oldest synagogue in continuous use.

7. CUISINE

A culinary heaven with a wide variety of sidewalk cafés, gourmet restaurants, international dishes and local eateries influenced by a melting pot of more than 55 different nationalities.

8. FESTIVALS AND EVENTS

There are numerous festivals year round, celebrating culture, food, music and more. Join us for Carnival, music festivals, sailing and cycling events.

9. A 'LIVE AND LET LIVE' ATTITUDE

Curaçao welcomes visitors of all races, orientations, and religions with a "live and let live" philosophy. The island has several hotels and attractions with IGLTA memberships and hosts a variety of Pride events, nightlife specials, and festivals.

10. OUR DIVERSITY

Ideal for family vacations, solo travel, romantic getaways, adventure travel, dive trips, weddings or for relaxation, Curaçao offers something for everyone.
