

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE GIFT OF GOD'S PROVISION

Provision: (noun) the providing or supplying of something, especially food or other necessities

OCTOBER 10, 2021

Children are always welcome in worship! They are an important part of our church community and we would love for them to stay for the whole service. Wiggles and giggles will not bother us; tears and fears remind us we're human. There is a nursery available downstairs (just ask an usher) if you would prefer. We are so glad you are here.

In worship a congregation is called to listen to God and to respond in faith and prayer. The Call to Worship states our intention to make this worship time solely about the Lord God.

WELCOME

October 10, 2021

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Come, you who hunger to taste the bread of life!

Many: Come, you who thirst for living water!

One: Come, you who hunger for justice and peace, and you who thirst for God's kingdom to drop like rain upon the world:

Many: come, let us journey together as a community of faith, come, let us worship God.

*OPENING PRAYER

*OPENING HYMN 612

We Praise You, O God

KREMSE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we confess that too often we do not pause to realize your majesty. We move through life with a sense of entitlement yet we are nothing without you. You created all and gift your creation to our safe keeping. Forgive us, Lord, when we so readily squander your gifts, when we mess up what you made perfect, when we despise what you call good. Forgive us and call us back, time and again, to gratitude and praise for all that you are and all you created us to be and, as we recognize how blessed we are, may we share that blessing with others in honor of you, Lord of all. Amen.

(Let us now continue our confession in silence.)

KYRIE

*Lord, have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison, Kyrie eleison.
Lord, have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord, have mercy.*

HOPSON

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

One: Hear the Good News: God knows us completely and loves us still. Know that through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

Many: Thanks be to God! Amen.

Those who are able,
please stand*

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen, amen.*

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST LESSON

JOHN 6:25-35

When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal." Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

Many: Thanks be to God.

I Am the Bread of Life
Chancel Choir

ARR. RICHARD PROULX

*I am the bread of life, You who come to me shall not hunger;
And who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.*

Refrain: And I will raise you up, upon the last day.

*The bread that I give is my flesh for the life of the world,
And if you eat of this bread, you shall live forever. Refrain*

*Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man
And drink of His blood, you shall not have life within you. Refrain*

*I am the resurrection, and I am the life.
If you believe in me, even though you die, you shall live forever. Refrain*

SECOND LESSON

EXODUS 16:1-18

The whole congregation of the Israelites set out from Elim; and Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had departed from the land of Egypt. The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger." Then the Lord said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days." So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "In the evening you shall know that it was the Lord who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and in the morning you shall see the glory of the Lord, because he has heard your complaining against the Lord. For what are we, that you complain against us?" And Moses said, "When the Lord gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the Lord has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but" against the Lord. Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, 'Draw near to the Lord, for he has heard your complaining.'" And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud. The Lord spoke to Moses and said, "I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.'" In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, "It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat. This is what the Lord has commanded: 'Gather as much of it as each of you needs, an omer to a person according to the number of persons, all providing for those in their own tents.'" The Israelites did so, some gathering more, some less. But when they measured it with an omer, those who gathered much had nothing over, and those who gathered little had no shortage; they gathered as much as each of them needed.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

Many: Thanks be to God.

PRAYER FOR THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

SERMON

"From Scarcity to Abundance "

The Rev. Brett Gudeman

SILENT MEDITATION

*HYMN 509

All Who Hunger, Gather Gladly

HOLY MANA

There is a time of silent meditation after the sermon. During this time, you might ask yourself, "From what I've heard and experienced during worship today, what do I believe God wants me to do or be? Is God inviting me to change in any way?"

Those who are able, please stand*

RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe that we are the light of the world. We believe we should let our light shine before others, so that they may see our good works and give glory to our Father in heaven. We believe that our love should be genuine. We believe that we should hate what is evil, and that we should hold fast to what is good. We believe that if we live by the Spirit, we should also be guided by the Spirit. We believe we should not become conceited, compete against one another, or envy one another. We believe that we are God's chosen ones. We believe that we should clothe ourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. We believe that we are called to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

PRESENTATION OF OUR TITHES AND OFFERINGS

OFFERTORY

Communion Hymn
Christian Contreras, baritone

MARY PICKENS OPIE

*Hungry and thirsty, Lord, I come to Thee,
Here lowly kneeling, Thy sacred feast before.
Strengthen my spirit with Thy food divine,
As now Thou feed'st me with the bread and wine.*

*Come to me, Savior, in this holy hour,
Shed Thou upon me all Thy wondrous love,
That I may ever dwell within Thy light,
And come before Thee stainless, pure, and white.*

*Jesus my Savior, look with loving eye
As from my heart I make this humble cry.
Give of Thyself, dear lord, that I may be filled with Thy grace,
Throughout eternity. Amen*

In response to the Word, prayers are offered. In these prayers, we acknowledge God's presence in the world and in daily life. We pray for the world because God loves it. God created the world and cares for it. God sent Jesus who died for it. God is working to lead the world toward the new future God has planned for it. To abide in God's love is to share God's concern for the world. Our prayers should therefore be as wide as God's love and as specific as God's tender compassion for the least among us. First Presbyterian is a Congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and a Stephen Ministry Congregation.

We welcome you as a participant in worship today. We pray that you will find this service meaningful. Worship is but one of the many ministries of First Presbyterian Church.

FLOWER GUILD HONORS AND MEMORIALS

The flowers this morning are given to the Glory of God.

Worship of the Living God is not confined to one place or time. We encourage you to take this bulletin home and use it to guide you in private moments of worship for the next week.

Discuss: Where do you see God's provision in these verses? Is it easy to see, or do you have to work to find it?

Read:

Monday- Matthew 8:28-34

Tuesday- Matthew 9:1-8

Wednesday- Matthew 9:9-17

Thursday- Matthew 9:18-26

Friday- Matthew 9:27-34

Saturday- Matthew 9:35-10:4

Pray: Ask God that you may see where you have been blessed, where you have abundance, and thank God for that. Then pray how you might share abundance with the world.

New Worship Service!

We have a new worship service every Thursday at 5:30 p.m. in John Allen Hall. The service will be a different experience than Sunday mornings. It will be a contemplative service and will include scripture, prayers, songs, and silence. We hope this service will offer you extra time during the week where you can connect with God.

Needed: Secret prayer partners for our confirmation youth. Contact Kathy if you are interested!

Sign up to participate in our Intergenerational Mission Night, Friday, October 15 at 5:30 pm.

Save the date! October 29 Trunk or Treat, 6:00 - 7:00 pm. Sign up to donate candy or decorate a trunk HERE or on the registration page of fpchsv.org.

Wednesday Night Live 5:00 - 7:00 pm for 2 years-Pre-K, K-5th, and 6th-12th, and includes dinner. Register too for the adult class 5:30 - 6:30 pm, and volunteer opportunities! Register now for WNL at fpchsv.org/registration.

Learning Wisdom From a Fool- Pastor Brett will be giving lectures and leading discussion on the wisdom books of the Old Testament on Tuesdays from 12-1 PM, September 21st-October 12th. Come and learn about Job, Psalms, Proverbs, and Ecclesiastes as we learn about their authorship, form, and what we can hope to learn from them. There are three ways to participate: Come in person in the library at church, join online through Zoom, or receive an email with a link to listen to the lectures. These are stand alone classes.

Thanks to Christian Contreras for singing this morning. Christian is a senior vocal performance major at Oakwood University. Christian is preparing for his recital November 14 at the GBH.

The Huntsville Master Chorale would like to invite you to "Swinging into Fall", a concert featuring In the Mood Swing Band. Concert is Saturday October 23 from 4:00-6:00 p.m. at The Stone Center, Campus 805 on Clinton Avenue. For more information visit www.hsvmasterchorale.org

October Mission of the Month

The Presbyterian Home for Children is a more than 150-year-old ministry of the Presbyterian Churches of Alabama. It serves children, families and young adults who seek healing and hope for their troubled lives.

For children and adolescents, PHFC offers The Moderate Care Residential Therapeutic Program for teens who have been removed from their homes by the Alabama Department of Human Resources. These young people have emotional and behavioral management difficulties that interfere with their ability to function in a family or community setting. There is also an Ascension Leadership Academy, their accredited private school, that helps children succeed academically.

For families, there is the Secure Dwellings Program that provides safe housing on the PHFC campus to homeless children and their female caregivers. There are also supportive housing communities throughout the state that offer these same services. The Family Bridges program delivers services to families in their own homes to help preserve and unify them.

The PHFC Thrift Store serves its residents and the local community. Often the Thrift Store is a resident's first job after they arrive on campus, providing income and job skills training.

Contact Nancy Lundy at nlundy@knology.net for more information or to volunteer for the work day at the Presbyterian Home for Children.

Hands-on mission opportunity at the Presbyterian Home for Children

On November 6, there is a volunteer workday at the home, which is located in Talladega, a 2.5-hour drive. We will be leaving at 7am and will return early in the evening. Projects planned are for painting either inside or outside depending on the weather. The church bus will be available for transportation.

On October 15, from 5:30-7:00 pm there will be an Intergenerational Mission Night during which the congregation will be tasked with creating cards and gift bags for the residents of PHFC. These will be delivered on November 6, at a volunteer workday at the home which is located in Talladega, a 2.5-hour drive. We will be leaving at 7am and will return early in the evening. Projects planned are for painting either inside or outside depending on the weather. The church bus will be available for transportation. Contact Kathy Gillmore at dce@fpchsv.org for more information or to volunteer for the Intergenerational Mission Night.

Hands-on mission opportunity

We will be providing lunches for the Village of Promise Infant University Classes on October 19 and 26, and on November 2. There are opportunities to prepare food and to pack lunches. Recipes will be provided. Contact Nancy Lundy for more information or to sign up to help. nlundy@knology.net

We are excited about Matt and Sarah Rideout coming to FPC on October 17. The Rideouts have been the missionaries in the field in Bombardopolis Haiti. FPC sponsors the Rideouts and also the mission that they work with International Missionary Fellowship. Matt and Sarah will be in the fellowship hall during the Sunday School hour to give a report on the current state of affairs in Haiti and the ongoing mission in Bombardopolis. We hope you'll join!

Update on the August Mission of the Month

The Inner-City Learning Center of Huntsville expressed enthusiastic gratitude for the generosity of First Presbyterian Church.

Update on our 2021 Mission of the Year

The Backpack Ministry is an ongoing mission opportunity. With the guidance of the Food Bank of N. Alabama, FPC is the sole provider of weekend food kits to disadvantaged children at The Academy of Academics and Arts (AAA). About 20 kits are taken weekly and discreetly provided to need-identified children on Friday afternoons.

Please remember that there is an ongoing need for supplies and for volunteers. There is a link on the mission page of the church website where you can volunteer to make foot kits or deliver them. The list of supplies for the kits can be found on the bulletin board at the church or on the website. Karen Madison will continue to be the contact person for The Backpack Ministry. If you have questions, contact Karen Madison at karenmadison@comcast.net.
