Silent Prayer of Preparation

by Reformer Joseph Renville

Many and great, O God, are your things, maker of earth and sky; your hands set the heavens with stars, your fingers spread the mountains and plains.
Lo, at your word the waters were formed; deep seas obey your voice.
Grant us communion with you, star-abiding one, come unto us and dwell with us, with you are found the gifts of life.
Bless us with life that has no end, eternal life with you. Amen.

Welcome to First Presbyterian Church of Huntsville, Alabama!

We are a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Procession of Tartans and Roll Call of the Clans (11:00)

Highland Cathedral
David Boling, Bag Piper

Reformation Sunday is a celebration of the Holy Spirit's ongoing work in and through the church. It commemorates when Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses on the church door in Wittenberg, German in 1517. Presbyterians are a part of the Reformed Tradition that descends from the work of theologians like Ulrich Zwingli, John Calvin, and John Knox. And yet, our shared history does not end in the 16th century, because our tradition is "reformed and always being reformed, by the grace of God."

Today's worship service is guided by the confessions of the Presbyterian Church, USA. Central to the first theme named in the Scots Confession is the presentation of various tartans—through the carrying of flags and the wearing of tartans. Clans provided protection and economic, political, and social support. The tartan is a symbol of love and togetherness. The Kirkin' is intended to encourage all participants to reflect with thanksgiving on their own family and heritage and to celebrate God's grace poured out for all generations.

One: As we believe in one God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, so we firmly believe that from the beginning there has been,
now is, and to the end of the world shall be one Kirk.

All: That is to say, one company and multitude of men and women chosen by God, who rightly worship and embrace God by true faith in Jesus Christ, who is the only head of the Kirk, even as it is the body and spouse of Christ Jesus.

One: The Kirk is catholic, that is, universal, because it contains the chosen of all ages, of all realms, nations, and tongues, who have communion and society with God.

All: We most surely believe that God preserved, instructed, multiplied, honored, adored, and called from death to life
God's Kirk in all ages.

We Do Confess One God Alone

Buz Wilcoxon

The musical score is written for a piano and voice. It features a treble and bass staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with the lyrics written below the notes. The score is divided into two systems, with a measure rest at the beginning of the second system.

Prayer of Confession

Adapted from The Second Helvetic Confession, 1566

Gracious God, in the beginning you made us according to your image, in righteousness and true holiness, good and upright.

But we have, of our own fault, abandoned goodness and righteousness, becoming subject to sin, death, and various calamities.

Full of all wickedness, distrust, contempt and hatred, we are unable to do or even think anything good of ourselves.

Forgive us Lord, by the grace of Christ.

Awaken us by the Word of the Gospel and your Holy Spirit.

Turn us away from the devil and all evil and toward you and all good,
and give us faith to serve you and our neighbor. Amen.

Come and Dwell in Solomon's Wall

Z. Randall Stroope

Chancel Choir

*When the final timber lay 'gainst the measured stones,
When the doorpost in their place overlaid with gold.
The Lord appeared to Solomon, blessing all the house,
The temple of the ark of God, pure and whole.*

*Come dwell in Solomon's walls
Come and dwell in the house of the Lord.
Where wisdom and righteousness,
Justice and holiness, join at the feet of God.*

*Come dwell in Solomon's walls,
Come and dwell in the house of the Lord.
Where the humble bow down, seeking wisdom and strength,
For the Lord dwells within and heals their land.*

*When the people of this house kneel and humbly pray,
When they turn from dark to light and your will obey.
O Lord of Heaven and Lord of earth, show favor on this house,
And heal, restore, forgive, and bless, Lord we pray.*

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

Affirmation of Faith

From The Confession of Belhar, 1982

We believe in the triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who gathers, protects and cares for the church through Word and Spirit. This, God has done since the beginning of the world and will do to the end. We believe in one holy, universal Christian church, the communion of saints called from the entire human family.

We believe that God has entrusted the church with the message of reconciliation in and through Jesus Christ; that the church is called to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, that the church is called blessed because it is a peacemaker, that the church is witness both by word and by deed to the new heaven and the new earth in which righteousness dwells; that God's life-giving Word and Spirit has conquered the powers of sin and death, and therefore also of irreconciliation and hatred, bitterness and enmity, that God's life-giving Word and Spirit will enable the church to live in a new obedience which can open new possibilities of life for society and the world. Amen.

Serving God with our Tithes and Offerings

One: Grace and gratitude belong together like heaven and earth.

All: Grace evokes gratitude like the voice of an echo.

One: Gratitude follows grace like thunder follows lightning.

All: The two belong together, so that only gratitude can correspond to grace.

Amazing Grace

Recessional of the Tartans (11:00)

Scotland the Brave

SCOTTISH TRADITIONAL

Today's 11:00 service includes the Kirkin' o' the Tartans, which celebrates the Scots' unwavering faith, love of scripture, persistence, strong independence and devotion to their "Kirk" (Scottish for Church).

This ceremony originated in America in the 20th century as part of the ministry of The Rev. Dr. Peter Marshall but is based on Scottish history, legend and folklore.

Scottish Reformer John Knox (1514-1572) studied under John Calvin (1509-1564) in Geneva in the 1500's, then returned to Scotland and established the first Presbyterian Churches there. The Scottish Parliament, at the conclusion of the Scottish Reformation, invited John Knox and five colleagues to prepare a Confession of Faith for the church. This 1560 Confession became the Scots Confession - it was the first Reformed Confession in the English language and has been referred to as the Charter of the Church of Scotland and of the Presbyterian Church. Presbyterianism spread to Ireland, and immigrants from Scotland and Ireland brought it to America.

The Celtic Cross

Throughout Scotland and Ireland, one may observe ancient crosses in churches and cemeteries. These crosses feature a scalloped cross superimposed upon a circle. Because of its association with Presbyterian history, the symbol of the PC(USA) is modeled after the Celtic Cross, which represents the incarnate love of God in Jesus Christ and his passion and resurrection.

The Tartan

Perhaps no symbol is more associated with the Scottish tradition than the colorful Highland dress. The ancient tartan was described as "chequered" or "striped" or "sundrei coloured." For many centuries, tartans were daily dress of the Highland people. They can be associated with a certain region or community, such as a District Tartan, or as a symbol of clan kinship. Clan can mean more than family or tribe. The clan was the basic social unit in the Highlands of Scotland, providing a governmental, social, religious and economic system.

Today the notion of belonging to a clan has more to do with the distant family connection than survival or loyalty. We remember our Scottish ancestors' struggle to affirm and establish that our Lord Jesus Christ alone is the Head of the Kirk. On behalf of all of Scottish descent among us, these tartans are presented before Almighty God, seeking God's blessings upon these colors and the clans they represent, as well as upon all humankind, the entire "Clan Di," (Gaelic for all the "Children of God").

Scottish Thistle

In gratitude, the plant became known as the Guardian Thistle and was adopted as the national symbol of Scotland.

Things Happening in the Life of the Church

Welcome home to the Sanctuary of First Presbyterian Church! Worship services will continue to be held in the Sanctuary at 8:30 am and 11:00 am. Restrooms are down the new hallway around the corner from the elevator on both levels. The elevator can easily be accessed by the new Lincoln Street entrance.

The flowers in the sanctuary are dedicated to the glory of God in the honor of the birthday of Bobbie O'Farrell.

Children have a special time together during worship before going to the Godly Playroom for Children's Church. Parents may pick up their kids after worship from that classroom, located at the end of the long hallway to the left of the new elevator. A nursery is offered for our littlest Presbyterians during worship. This new room is also upstairs, down the long hallway, to the left of the elevator.

Sunday School Classes meet in the Gideon Blackburn House at 9:45 am. Coffee is available in the entranceway. The Seminar Class meets in the living room. Children and youth classes meet downstairs. A nursery is available in the GBH during Sunday School.

PYC Youth Group (6th-12th graders) meets tonight from 5:00-7:00 with David and Buz for a special program. Speak with David or Anne Dillon for more details.

Save the Date for Trunk or Treat in partnership with the Greene Street Market on Thursday, October 29 from 5:00-6:00pm! All are welcome to participate in this fun, intergenerational event. Volunteers are needed to sponsor trunks, and candy donations are appreciated. Speak with Kathy for more details.

All Saints' Sunday will be celebrated on November 1 to remember members of our congregation and immediate family members who have passed away since November 2, 2025. Please contact the office with your loved one's name by Wednesday, October 29.

A New Membership Class will be held after worship on November 15. Contact the church office if you are interested in participating.
