

FESTIVAL of the week

WINE & OYSTER FESTIVAL
SEPTEMBER 21 & 22: 10 AM to 6 PM
483 Great House Road, Stratford, VA
www.stratfordhall.org

If you love great wines, delicious seafood and fine crafts, the place you want to be is the Stratford Hall Wine and Oyster Festival on September 21 and 22. The 13th annual features award-winning wines and coastal oysters, craft breweries and artisan booths. Enjoy entertainment both days with live music and activities for all ages.

Stratford Hall
HOME of THE LEES of VIRGINIA

Don't miss the specialty car shows featuring the Mustang Car Clubs on Saturday and the Memory Lane Car Club on Sunday. Learn from the experts about Virginia's oyster industry and watch champion oyster shuckers demonstrate their skills.

Tour the Great House and wander the 18th-century gardens. Discover local wares at the gift shop and explore the road to the cliffs overlook, gristmill and beachfront fossil hunting. Overnight lodging accommodations are available.

Early Bird Per-Day Tickets: Tasting $25 / Non-Tasting $17 / Kids 7-12 $5.

Per-Day Tickets beginning September 12: Tasting $30 / Non-Tasting $20 / Kids 7-12 $5.

(Note that Tasting Tickets do not include oysters or beer tasting.)

ORDER: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/2019-wine-oyster-festival-tickets-65181624995>

Stratford Hall Plantation is located just off State Route 3 on State Route 214, six miles northwest of Montross in Westmoreland County and 42 miles southeast of Fredericksburg. GPS address is 483 Great House Road, Stratford, VA 22558

Stratford Hall
804-493-8038