The fifth annual Hops, Wines and Swines Festival promises to be bigger and better than in previous years. This is a rain or shine event as the indoor arena offers protection no matter what the weather.

There will be regional wineries, Virginia and North Carolina craft breweries, along with BBQ and other tasty food selections, as well as local artisans. Music will be provided by the Back Porch Orchestra, a versatile and high energy group, that plays blues, bluegrass country and classic rock.

The festival is the primary fundraiser for the Olde Dominion Agricultural Foundation, a nonprofit 501c3 organization. Its mission is to promote and support regional agriculture. Over 30,000 people visit the Complex each year.

Tickets are $25 in advance at www.theodac.com or $30 at the door. The tasting tickets include entrance into the festival, unlimited wine tastings, 10 beer tastings and an appetizer BBQ platter. See the Facebook page for a listing of participating wineries.
