

WINERY OF THE MONTH OCTOBER 2018

DOUKENIE WINERY

Drink in the Scenery. Taste the Wine.
Purcellville, Virginia

Located in Loudoun County, Doukenie Winery is just 30 miles from Washington D.C. in Virginia's famed wine country. The farm winery founded in 1983 boasts amazing views and beautiful grounds. It produces Bordeaux style wines, almost all of which are estate grown and produced on site under the professional direction of winemaker, Sebastien Marquet. Production consists of six white wines, nine red wines and one fruit wine.

The winery's large Tasting Room has a hospitable staff with extensive wine knowledge and offers outstanding customer service. Doukenie Winery is a four-time recipient of the Virginia Wine Lover "Visitor's Choice" Awards for Favorite Tasting Room. Individual tastings are available daily and group tastings by appointment. The Tasting Room is open Daily April 1 to October 31, 10am to 6pm. November 1 to March 31, 10am to 5pm Monday-Thursday; 10am to 6pm Friday-Sunday.

Doukenie Winery is a popular destination for wine lovers, particularly so on weekends, offering a variety of live entertainment and food selections. Coming in October . . .

Harvest Festival – October 20
Bistro Night – Every Friday Evening
Vines to Wine Tours – October 6
Saturday Sounds – October 6, 13 and 27
Sunday Tunes – October 7 and 21

The popularity of Doukenie wines is apparent by the growing membership of the Heritage Club which offers members flexibility in their wine purchases. Membership includes invitations to private tastings and dinners and tickets to the winery's annual music concerts.
