One of the best festivals in Virginia, the popular event has expanded to two big days this year on Saturday, November 5 (10-4) and Sunday, November 6 (11-4). The festival is beautifully laid out on the gently sloping lawn of the park and offers wonderful Virginia wines, smooth music, beautiful art and great food.

In addition to wine and food, artisans will be selling pottery, jewelry, photography and varied mixed media. This is a family friendly events with activities for the kids.

Cost for unlimited wine tastings is $15 and includes commemorative wine glass. Admission to the event grounds is free for non-sippers and designated drivers. There is a $5 parking fee.

Caledon State Park is just 20 minutes from Fredericksburg and an hour from Richmond. It is just across the Potomac River from Maryland.
