The 2019 Festival is on Saturday instead of Sunday!

The 15th Annual Manassas Jazz Festival will be held this year on Saturday, June 15, at the Manassas Museum in downtown Manassas. The event features live jazz music, as well as wine, beer, and spirits from around the area – something for everyone to enjoy!

Virginia farm wineries, Virginia craft breweries and local Virginia distilleries will all be on hand for an afternoon of live jazz music that will make this the perfect day! Bring out your lawn chairs and blankets and enjoy a great event in downtown Manassas! (Please leave your pop-up tents, canopies, quick-shade, etc. at home.)

The entertainment line-up begins with Good Shot Judy, specializing in top-notch Classic Vocal Jazz. Black Market with Nate The DJ follows with a sound woven from the fibers of jazz, soul, R&B, rock, funk, and more. Headliner Marcus Johnson comes on at 4:30. An independent Billboard-ranked musician, NAACP Image Award nominee, owner of FLO Brands and FLO Wine, Johnson is a man of many talents.

Taster Tickets are $40 in advance/$45 at the door.
(Includes tasting glass and tastings at wineries, distilleries and breweries.)
Non-Taster tickets are $25.
Kids age 13 years and under are free.

NOTE: In case of severe weather, rain date is June 22.
