For 27 years, the Montpelier Wine Festival has been held on the grounds of James Madison's Montpelier. This year, the location is the same, but the festival has a great new name: Orange Uncorked! In addition, this is a historic year as it is the last time the event will be held at Montpelier, and the sponsors are pulling out all "corks" to make this the best ever!

Come and celebrate spring! Bring a blanket and a picnic, as well as your love of Virginia wines. Over 20 wineries and cideries and food trucks will be on hand along with a great lineup of music that includes Scuffletown, Billy and the Backbeats, Midlife Crisis and 2 Wishes!! Hours are 11am-6pm on Saturday and Sunday 11am-5pm.

Orange Uncorked is a great festival for the whole family. You can spend the day tasting wine and enjoying distinctive arts and crafts, enjoying live music and specialty food vendors. Participate in the Most Marvelous Hat contest and challenge your friends to a corn hole game! Children will enjoy the barrel train rides. Mansion tours are available and begin at the Visitor's Center.
