Kick off summer at the 19th Annual ValleyFest Beer & Wine Festival on the slopes of Massanutten Resort! More than 4,000 people celebrate the holiday weekend at the festival, dancing to live music, sampling food, shopping for unique and handmade crafts, and enjoying wines and ciders and microbrews of the Shenandoah Valley and beyond. There will be many varieties of each, with all the beer and wine you could possibly enjoy in one place! Food and craft vendors will be out in numbers. Festival begins at noon and runs to 7pm.

This year's great music lineup for Main Stage entertainment includes Pebble to Pearl, YARN, The Judy Chops and Mike Davis. On the Base Camp Acoustic Stage are Trail of the Lonesome, YARN Plays The Dead and Gypsy Town.

General Admission:

Advance | $25 (ends May 25) / At the Gate | $35
Full 12-ounce pours for beer can be purchased for $5.
Wine is for sale by wineries.

Military | $20 with valid ID (tickets must be purchased in person at Chamber office)
