Good News of Great Joy

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

December 24, 2022, 4 p.m.

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL'S!

Wherever you are in the world or on your life's journey, we are glad you chose to worship with us today. Our mission is to provide a spiritual home for all to seek, serve, and love God together. We fulfill this mission by celebrating in vibrant worship and joyful music; engaging our hearts and minds in thoughtful, relevant education; caring for each other within our parish; reaching out through service to others locally and globally; and using our gifts to support the ministries of St. Paul's.

If you are new to St. Paul's, please fill out our welcome card in the pew rack in front of you or online: stpauls-church.org/visit. A member of the clergy will reach out to get to know you and welcome you into our community. For more information, contact the Rev. Jessie Dodson, at (216) 932-5815, or jdodson@stpauls-church.org.

CHORAL PRELUDE

Angels' Carol

John Rutter

Youth Choir

Have you heard the sound of the angel voices Ringing out so sweetly, ringing out so clear?
Have you seen the star shining out so brightly As a sign from God that Christ the Lord is here?
Have you heard the news that they bring from heaven
To the humble shepherds who have waited long?
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Hear the angels sing their joyful song.

He is come in peace in the winter's stillness,
Like a snowfall in the gentle night.
He is come in joy, like the sun at morning,
Filling all the world with radiance and light.
He is come in love as the child of Mary.
In a simple stable we have seen his birth.
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Hear the angels singing "Peace on earth."

He will bring new light to a world in darkness,
Like a bright star shining in the skies above.
He will bring new hope to the waiting nations
When he comes to reign in purity and love.
Let the earth rejoice at the Saviour's coming.
Let the heavens answer with the joyful morn:
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Hear the angels singing "Christ is born."

The Cherry Tree Carol

Traditional English Carol, arr. Sarah MacDonald

Youth Choir

Celia Doherty, Lucia Mitchell, Clara Lyford, soloists

Joseph was an old man, and an old man was he,
When he wedded Mary in the land of Galilee.

Then Mary plucked a cherry, as red as any blood, Mary went she homeward, all with her heavy load.

Joseph and Mary walked through an orchard good, Where was cherries and berries, so red as any blood.

Then Mary took her baby, and sat him on her knee, Saying 'My dear son, pray tell me, what this world will be.'

O then bespoke Mary, with words so meek and mild, 'Pluck me one cherry, Joseph, for I am with child.'

'O I shall be dead, mother, as the stones are in the wall;
O the stones in the streets, dear mother, shall mourn for me all.'

O then bespoke the baby, within his mother's arms,
'Bow down, then, the tallest tree, for my mother to have some!'

Upon Easter Day, dear mother, my uprising all shall see,
O the sun and the moon dear mother, shall both rise up with me!'

Then bowed down the highest branch, unto his mother's hand. 'See,' Mary cried, 'see, Joseph, I have cherries at command!'

Lucia Mitchell, Nora von der Heydt, Clara Lyford, soloists

When blossoms flowered 'mid the snows upon a winter night,
Was born the Child the Christmas Rose,
The King of Love and Light.
The angels sang, the shepherds sang,
The grateful earth rejoiced.
And at His blessed birth the stars
Their exultation voiced.
O Come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

Again the heart with rapture glows to greet the holy night, that gave the world its Christmas Rose,
its king of Love and Light.
Let ev'ry voice acclaim His name,
The grateful chorus swell,
From paradise to earth He came that we with Him might dwell.
O Come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer B, expansive language

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth, because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfectly human of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus, S125, Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days you sent Jesus to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember Christ's death,

We proclaim Christ's resurrection,

We await Christ's coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

A spiritual communion is a personal devotional that anyone can pray at any time to express their desire to receive Holy Communion at that moment, but in which circumstances impede them from actually receiving Holy Communion. The Celebrant invites the following prayer to be said by those viewing the service online.

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, I long to offer praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive Communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF COMMUNION

Wherever you find yourself on your journey of faith, you are welcome at God's table.

In the interest of public health, St. Paul's does not practice intinction, that is, the dipping of the Bread into the Wine. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like to receive a blessing, you can indicate this to the priest by crossing your arms over your chest. If you are mobility impaired, and would like Communion brought to your pew, simply notify an usher.

Infant Lowly, Infant Holy
St. Cecilia and St. David Choir

Polish carol, arr. David Willcocks

Infant holy, infant lowly, for His bed a cattle stall;
oxen lowing, little knowing Christ the Babe is Lord of all.
Swift are winging angels singing, noels ringing, tidings bringing:
Christ the Babe is Lord of all,
Christ the Babe is Lord of all.

Flocks were sleeping, shepherds keeping vigil till the morning new saw the glory, heard the story, tidings of the gospel true.
Thus rejoicing, free from sorrow, praises voicing, greet the morrow:
Christ the Babe was born for you.
Christ the Babe was born for you.

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan, earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter, long ago.
Our God, heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;
heaven and earth shall flee away when he comes to reign:
in the bleak midwinter a stable-place sufficed
the Lord God incarnate, Jesus Christ.

Enough for Him, whom Cherubim Worship night and day,
A breastful of milk And a mangerful of hay;
Enough for Him, whom Angels Fall down before,
The ox and ass and camel Which adore.
What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
if I were a wise man, I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him, give my heart.

Christmas 2022

Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake at the sight, glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born!
Christ, the Savior, is born!

Welcome to St. Paul's on this holy day when we celebrate Jesus coming into this world; we celebrate the gift of Emmanuel, God with us. Jesus interrupted the course of human history and redirected us towards all that we can be, to the fullness of justice and righteousness for all, to the peace that sustains and nurtures us through all of life. Let us rejoice in gladness. Let us give thanks for God's immeasurable Love.

Blessings and Joy to you during this holy season of Christmas and in the year to come!

La Nativité du Seigneur Sunday, January 8, 2023, 4 p.m.

Karel Paukert plays Olivier Messiaen's La Nativité du Seigneur in its entirety on Sunday, January 8, at 4 p.m. in the Nave. This 1935 masterpiece is a series of nine meditations on the birth of Jesus, from the crèche to the Word made flesh. Don't miss our local maestro exercise his mastery on the Holtkamp organ.

Spirituality on the Silver Screen Wednesdays, beginning January 11, 6:30 p.m.

Spirituality on the Silver Screen returns! St. Paul's parishioners will host movies and discussions on Wednesdays in the Brooks Room between Epiphany and Ash Wednesday. Light snacks and refreshments will be provided. The selections have thematic resonance with the sacraments, our theme for the program year. To sign up and read the full schedule, visit our website: www.stpauls-church.org/soss/.

Chili Cook-Off Friday, January 20, 2023, 6:30 p.m.

Join us for the St. Paul's Chili Cook-Off, on Friday, January 20, from 6:30 to 9 p.m., in Tucker Hall. The Chili Cook-Off is a fun event of fellowship and friendly competition to warm your January chill. Attendees will have the opportunity to sample all chilis and will serve as the judges. Appetizers, salads, cornbread, desserts, and beverages (beer, wine, and soft drinks) will be served. Registration is free for chefs and $20 for each attendee. This is an adult event; if you need childcare, please note that in your registration no later than January 16, 2023. For more details and to register as a contestant or attendee, visit our website at: www.stpauls-church.org/chili2023.
