For the second in our three-part series exploring the riches of "Seeking" in our lives of faith, Rev. Jessie will be joined by pastoral counselor, coach, and friend of the parish, the Rev. Lois Annich, for a dynamic conversation on the role of seeking throughout our Christian tradition. Together they'll ponder the tools and models our Christian tradition offers to deepen our relationships with God. Our hope is this conversation will spark your imagination to reflect on the role of seeking in your own life, both what it has been, and what it could be.

FLOWERS TODAY

The flowers today are given in loving memory of Robert Lee Metzger by his family, and in loving memory of Ariel V. and George F. Carlstrom by Barbara and Ian Carlstrom

Did you know...that beginning with the months of virtual worship and continuing on today, our new streaming technology has brought our worship services into the homes of numerous housebound parishioners who before had no opportunity to recite prayers, sing hymns, and listen to sermons with the rest of the St. Paul's community? Additionally, we have many out-of-town parishioners now worshiping with us on Sunday mornings.

TAKE NOTE

Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, October 3, 4 p.m.

From kittens to chickens, guppies to puppies, our clergy will be BLESSING all pets great and small. Join us for a brief service and blessing out on the front lawn.

Yoga Class

Beginning Monday, October 4, 5:30 p.m.

Our August "Faith with a Twist" yoga series was such a success that we're launching a weekly yoga series. Join trained yoga instructor Rebekah Colours and St. Paul's parishioners and friends for a weekly yoga flow on Mondays from 5:30 to 6:20 p.m. in Tucker Hall. Classes will be free with the choice of making a freewill donation to support our outreach partners. Bring your mat, blocks (if desired), and a friend. No registration is required. Contact Rev. Jessie with questions: jdodson@stpauls-church.org

Theology Matters: Big Questions

Beginning Wednesday, October 6, 7 p.m.

Why are we here? Is there life after death? Does science point to or away from God? Can we make sense of suffering? If these questions cross your mind from time to time (or perhaps regularly!), then join the Rev. John Kennedy for a reading and discussion series on some of the most enduring and weighty of theological and philosophical questions. We'll meet for four consecutive sessions beginning Wednesday, October 6 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Sanders room. Registration is encouraged but not required. To register or learn more, contact Rev. John Kennedy: jkennedy@stpauls-church.org

Sacred Ground

Beginning Thursday, October 14, 9 a.m.

Following four transformative Sacred Ground Circles last year, St. Paul's is offering another this fall led by the Rev. John Kennedy and parishioner Eustacia Netzel-Hatcher. Sacred Ground is a film-based dialogue series on race and faith developed by the Episcopal Church. It is an invitation to "peel away the layers that have contributed to the challenging divides of the present day — all while grounded in our call to faith, hope and love." Beginning October 14, we will gather every two weeks on Thursdays from 9 to 10:30 a.m. in the Sanders Room (with a break for the holidays) for a total of ten sessions. To register or learn more, contact Rev. John: jkennedy@stpauls-church.org

TODAY'S READINGS

Numbers 11:4-6,10-16,24-29

The rabble among them had a strong craving; and the Israelites also wept again, and said, "If only we had meat to eat! We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic; but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at." Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, all at the entrances of their tents. Then the Lord became very angry, and Moses was displeased. So Moses said to the Lord, "Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why have I not found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a sucking child,' to the land that you promised on oath to their ancestors? Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they come weeping to me and say, 'Give us meat to eat!' I am not able to carry all this people alone, for they are too heavy for me. If this is the way you are going to treat me, put me to death at once — if I have found favor in your sight — and do not let me see my misery." So the Lord said to Moses, "Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their place there with you." So Moses went out and told the people the words of the Lord; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again. Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp." And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, "My lord Moses, stop them!" But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit on them!"

James 5:13-20

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

Mark 9:38-50

John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward. "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. "For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

8 The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart; * the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever; * the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, * sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

11 By them also is your servant enlightened, * and in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how often he offends? * cleanse me from my secret faults.

13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me; * then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, * O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

 eternally begotten of the Father,
 God from God, Light from Light,

 Through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:

 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,

 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

All

The Celebrant praises God for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ our Lord and prays the Words of Institution over the bread and wine.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant offers the Eucharistic elements to God and invokes the Holy Spirit to bless and sanctify the elements and the participants.

Celebrant All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

People AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

The Celebrant invites the following prayer to be said by those viewing the service online.

All In union, O Lord, with the faithful at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. I present to you my soul and body with the earnest wish that I may always be united to you, and, since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself with you, and embrace you with all the love of my soul. Let nothing ever separate you from me. May I live in you, and may you live in me, both in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF COMMUNION

Wherever you find yourself on your journey of faith, you are welcome at God's table. The ushers will direct the People to the Communion administration stations. The sacrament will be served "in one kind"- the Bread only. The doctrine of concomitance, an ancient teaching of the church, holds that the full grace of the sacrament is received in either kind. Gluten-free wafers are available at the station nearest the pulpit (forward right). If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like to receive a blessing, you can indicate this to the priest by crossing your arms over your chest.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God,
you have graciously accepted us as living members
of our Savior Jesus Christ,
and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
