Today's Readings

Jeremiah 31:31-34

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Hebrews 5:5-10

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”; as he says also in another place, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

John 12:20-33

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor. “Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

EASTER GIVING

OPENING ACCLAMATION & PENITENTIAL SENTENCE

Blessed be God who forgives all our sins.

God's mercy endures for ever.

Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4:14,16

CONFESSION OF SIN Kneel or remain standing

The Deacon says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is kept.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Remain standing or kneel

God made Christ a high priest for our salvation. As we prepare for the Paschal feast let us lift up our prayers and supplications to God through his Son, saying, hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

For the Church, and especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop and Anne our Bishop, that all the people of God may know the Lord through the covenant of love written on their hearts.

Hear us, O God,
For your mercy is great.

For this parish, that in this holy season we may walk with Christ, entrust our lives to God, and come to know the One who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Hear us, O God,
For your mercy is great.

For the leaders of the nations and all in authority, remembering especially Joe our President, that God will give them the grace and will to work for peace, so that the broken body of the world may rejoice.

Hear us O God,
For your mercy is great.

For the grace to reach out to our neighbors, remembering especially parents, caregivers for the sick, and those who assist the least and the lost, that God will guide us in offering our lives in loving service to help others along life's journey.

Hear us, O God,

For your mercy is great.

For all those in need of our prayers, remembering especially the people of Gaza, that God will give them strength and fill their hearts with hope and peace.

Hear us, O God,

For your mercy is great.

For those who have died, that, as they have been sown with Christ in death, so may they also be part of Christ's abundant harvest in eternal life.

Hear us, O God,

For your mercy is great.

The Presider prays a concluding Collect.

Blessed are you, God of eternal life, who lifted up your Son from death. Hear the prayers we offer this day, create in us clean hearts, and renew a right spirit within us that we may be glorified with Christ forever. To you be praise, honor and glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

THE PEACE All stand

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

WELCOME Sit

The Holy Communion

THE OFFERTORY

In the Offertory, the People's gifts of bread, wine and money are offered at the Altar. We give back to God from the abundance of God's blessings in recognition that all we have is a gift from God. An offering is received to support the mission of St. Paul's to provide a spiritual home for all to seek, serve, and love God together. All are invited to make a gift as the plate is passed, at www.stpauls-church.org/give/, or by texting "STPAULSCLE" followed by an amount to 73256.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Hear us, O hear us Lord

Lee Hoiby

Hear us, O hear us Lord; to Thee

A sinner is more music, when he prays...

Hear us, for till Thou hear us, Lord

We know not what to say;

Thine ear to our sighs, tears, thoughts gives voice and word.

O Thou who Satan heard'st in Job's sick day,

Hear Thy self now, for Thou in us dost pray.

Son of God hear us, and since Thou

By taking our blood, owest it us again,

Gain to Thy self, or us allow;

And let not both us and Thy self be slain;

O Lamb of God, which took'st our sin

Which could not stick to Thee,

O let it not return to us again,

But patient and physician being free,

As sin is nothing, let it no where be.

Hear us, O hear us Lord; to Thee

A sinner is more music, when he prays,

Than spheres or Angels praises be,

In panegyric Alleluias:

Hear us, for till Thou hear us, Lord

We know not what to say;

—John Donne (1572-1631), from A Litany, no. 23

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer C

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us.

By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Sanctus S124, David Hurd

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection,
as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our ancestors: God of Abraham and Sarah; Isaac and Rebekah; Jacob, Leah and Rachel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Fraction Anthem S161, Hurd

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world:
have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The Gifts of God for the People of God. (Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.)

THE ADMINISTRATION OF COMMUNION Sit

Wherever you find yourself on your journey of faith, you are welcome at God's table.

In the interest of public health, St. Paul's does not practice intinction, that is, the dipping of the Bread into the Wine. Gluten-free wafers are available at the Altar rail. If you do not wish to receive Communion but would like to receive a blessing, you can indicate this to the priest by crossing your arms over your chest. If you are mobility impaired, and would like Communion brought to your pew, simply notify an usher.

The Deacon says

Bow down before the Lord.

The People kneel or bow their heads

Look with compassion, O Lord, upon this your people; that, rightly observing this holy season, they may learn to know you more fully, and to serve you with a more perfect will; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

HYMN 441 Stand

In the cross of Christ I glory

Rathbun
