

How to Log In to Your Rider Rewards

Using a Desktop or Laptop Computer (currently the website is not set up for use with a smartphone), you'll want to go to www.FXCHD.com/rider-rewards. Scroll down just a bit till you see the portal:

New Rewards Members will need to click on "No, I Need a Password" to set up your account. You'll need your FX Thunder Rider Rewards Card number found on the back (starts with a ZM) and security code (see example pictured).

From there you'll be able to create your account, add pictures if you'd like, see a brief history of your transactions, what events are coming up, how many points you've earned, and be able to redeem your points for coupons at the register.

Returning Rewards Members will need to click on "Yes, I Have a Password" to go to your account. You'll need enter your Username (usually your email) and password:
