

Gratitude and Appreciation Donors Bring Us to 25 Years

"I love words. So many times on the job, in relationships, words, beautiful words are judged, misjudged and turned around. It is so nice to be in the environment where words are loved, shared and celebrated in peace." -Adult participant

With tremendous gratitude and appreciation to all our donors, THANK YOU! Without you, this milestone 25th Anniversary of Women Writing for (a) Change would not be possible. With these gifts, you encourage writing in community as a form of self-expression and self-discovery. You provide scholarships for women and young women who otherwise could not experience these circles. Your gifts support summer camps for girls and outreach classes for teens at risk for homelessness, girls from less advantaged backgrounds, coed groups at local elementary schools, and so much more!

Through your contributions, you make Women Writing for (a) Change possible--thriving and stronger than ever at 25! Thank you!
