

With Gratitude and Appreciation 2016 Donor Recognition

Thank you. It takes a community! Each and every one of you in this community of donors makes Women Writing for (a) Change possible. From core classes to summer camps, through scholarships and outreach to those less advantaged, your gifts provide one third of the funding needed to offer this multitude of opportunities to nurture and celebrate the individual voice.

Each of you is a critical partner in bringing these circles into the second 25 years of fostering creative self-expression through the art of writing. With grateful appreciation, on behalf of over 1500 women, girls and men who walked through our doors and who sat in our circles in 2016: A huge "Thank you!" to all listed here:
