

It Takes a Community!

With immense gratitude, we recognize all who made gifts to Women Writing for (a) Change during 2019. Your enthusiastic generosity fosters the special uniqueness and vitality that brings Women Writing for (a) Change into its 29th year! Your support funds scholarships for many who could not otherwise attend writing circles. It allows outreach to urban teens and to young women experiencing or at risk of homelessness, through in-school writing circles.

Your generosity reaches women who have experienced domestic violence, women in jail, and youth in after school programs. These contributions provide over one third of the funding needed to offer writing circles in which every voice is honored, and in which writing is valued as a form of creative self-expression and self-discovery.

*It is with deep appreciation that we list all who made gifts to Women Writing for (a) Change during 2019 and all who are honored or remembered with these gifts. They make a life changing difference. Thank you!
