

Activity Lesson 5

Blessed are the meek for they will inherit the earth

- Each family member/participant should think of something around them that they treasure.
- If possible, retrieve an item or object that they protect and prize (perhaps a beloved toy or a special gift).
- Everyone take a turn sharing why they chose their item and how they are gentle when caring for the item.
- Parents and other adults should share, too!