

Prayers 08-30-20

Confident of your care and helped by the Holy Spirit, we pray for the church, the world, and all in need.

A brief silence.

God of faithfulness, you call us to follow Jesus. Give us strength to do so. Set our minds on divine things, that in the midst of suffering we find our life in you. Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of wonder, the earth is yours and all that is in it. Heal your creation and its creatures. Teach us to care for the environment, and guide scientists as they work to combat the coronavirus pandemic. Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of all nations and peoples, you abhor our racist divisions. We grieve with the families of two protestors killed in Kenosha. We pray for Jacob Blake and his family. We pray for police officers. Help us overcome evil with good. Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of salvation, you promise to deliver us. Give those who suffer a sure sense of your presence and love. We pray for those named by this community:

Our homebound: Angela Motiejunas, Florence (mother of Vivian Shin) Ross Larson
(former IPLC Pastor), and their caregivers.

We pray for those we name in the silence of our hearts. Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of community, you call us to love one another with mutual affection, outdo one another in showing honor, rejoice in hope, persevere in prayer. So far as it is possible, help us live peaceably with one another, taking thought for what is noble in the sight of all. Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of all grace, you give us everlasting life. We give you thanks for those who have died, especially Peggy and Blanca. Comfort all who mourn, and at the last gather all into your everlasting kingdom. Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

We offer these prayers to you, in the certain hope that though we are apart from one another, nothing can separate us from your love, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
