

All are invited to a Solo Organ Recital at Christ Church by Jeremy Bruns on Saturday, January 29, 2022 at 4:00 p.m. The program features the works of Johann Kuhnau, J. S. Bach, Felix Mendelssohn, Vincent Persichetti, George Shearing, Marcel Dupré, Jeanne Demessieux and Maurice Duruflé. There is a Suggested Donation of $20/$10 for students & seniors; $35 for families. COVID protocols for attendees require that masks be worn and seating be socially distanced. The recital will also be broadcast LIVE on YouTube with a link available on the Christ Church website.

Named “a coolly aristocratic player” by The Dallas Morning News, JEREMY BRUNS has been featured on the nationally syndicated radio show Pipedreams, BBC Radio, and the Pro Organo label. He has performed at the Piccolo Spoleto Festival in Charleston, South Carolina, and has played numerous recitals with engagements including St. Paul’s Cathedral and Westminster Abbey in London, Canterbury Cathedral, England, Washington National Cathedral, St. James’ Cathedral in Toronto, Canada, Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, Methuen Memorial Music Hall, St. Paul Cathedral and Heinz Memorial Chapel in Pittsburgh, Adolphus Busch Hall, Cambridge, Massachusetts and the Fisor Reformed Church in Budapest, Hungary. As a church musician, Bruns has held positions in Boston Massachusetts, Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and other locations, including three years as Associate Organist of Saint Thomas Church Fifth Avenue in Manhattan, where he worked daily with the late John Scott and the Saint Thomas Choir of Men and Boys. He has also served as a Visiting Assistant Professor in the School of Music at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches Texas. He studied with David Higgs at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, earning the Master of Music and the Performer’s Certificate. Bruns is Dean of the Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and is represented by Concert Artist Cooperative. He serves as the Interim Director of Music and Organist at the Parish of the Epiphany in Winchester, Massachusetts.