

SPECIAL PRAYER LIST

(To Help With Your Intercessory Prayers for Others)

You are surely praying for the needs of your immediate family and circle of friends. Hopefully, you are also praying for the urgent needs of your faith family at First United Methodist Church.

Wondering what else to pray for? Here are some suggestions!

We are revising and posting this list each week to help you remember some important needs. Spend a few moments to pray through this list each day!

- Everyone impacted by Hurricane Ida in Louisiana and all the other states in its path where over 60 people lost their lives, and hundreds of thousands have lost their homes and businesses
- Afghanis who were evacuated and now starting new lives in unfamiliar nations. Prayers for all those who were unable to leave their country in likely danger from the Taliban
- The people of Haiti, who are recovering from an earthquake, a tropical storm, assassination of their president, political unrest and hunger
- The people of Cuba who are lacking food and medicine, experiencing political unrest, and a surge in COVID cases, including our own sister church in Biran
- Everyone impacted in some way by COVID-19, especially with this very contagious Delta Variant: sickness, death, loss of jobs and business, evictions, mental health, addictions and hungry families
- The people impacted by fires, flooding and other natural disasters
- Our church, our Pastor, our Bishop and our District Superintendent
- Everyone on our “church family” prayer list (see above)
- Each of the families in need who received our lovingly packed bag of food in recent weeks
- Each of the organizations that has received our altar flowers
- Our healthcare workers and first responders
- All those struggling and overwhelmed throughout these difficult times - for courage, strength, and peace, as they maneuver through the challenges (Some are on the prayer list and some are not.)
- Our leaders – that they will make good and Godly decisions
- Those impacted daily by racism
- Our church’s homebound or living in long-term living facilities
- All the Scouts and Scout leaders of Boy Scout Troop 165
- Our MDS preschool children, parents and teachers
- Our church’s children, youth, and college students
- Our military and their families

We pray for our divided nation and that people can learn to set aside their political differences, words of hate and even violence, and love one another as people who are all made in the image of God and loved by God.
