Philippians 2:1-11 Common English Bible (CEB)

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort in love, any sharing in the Spirit, any sympathy, <sup>2</sup>complete my joy by thinking the same way, having the same love, being united, and agreeing with each other. <sup>3</sup>Don't do anything for selfish purposes, but with humility think of others as better than yourselves. <sup>4</sup>Instead of each person watching out for their own good, watch out for what is better for others. <sup>5</sup>Adopt the attitude that was in Christ Jesus:

<sup>6</sup>Though he was in the form of God,

    he did not consider being equal with God something to exploit.

<sup>7</sup>But he emptied himself

    by taking the form of a slave and by becoming like human beings.

When he found himself in the form of a human,

<sup>8</sup>    he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death,
        even death on a cross.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, God highly honored him

    and gave him a name above all names,

<sup>10</sup>  so that at the name of Jesus everyone

    in heaven, on earth, and under the earth might bow

    that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
