

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS
All members of CORPUS and their supporters.

COPYREVIEW
Paul Ackerman (MS),
Paul Berres (TX),
Mary Jane McCool (MA)
Stu O'Brien (MA)

CORPUS REPORTS is a quarterly
journal of CORPUS.

CORPUS
is a national association advocating both a married and celibate priesthood in the Roman Catholic Church.

In the spirit of Vatican II and rooted in a strong Eucharistic commitment,
we believe that priesthood
should be open to all whom God calls
regardless of gender, marital status or sexual orientation.

CORPUS REPORTS
does not pay for contributions, but wishes to be a forum for the exchange of pertinent ideas,
opinions, information and insight.

We welcome your contributions.

Address all letters and articles for publication to:

CORPUS
187 Eastwood Drive
Shohola, PA 18458
570.296.5326
corpususa@gmail.com

Published articles may not necessarily reflect official position of the Executive Council of CORPUS.

CORPUS Reports

FROM THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Dear CORPUS Community-

The season of Autumn keenly reminds us that we are always in transition and change is a consistent and sacred part of life. With that in mind, Ralph and I announce that we will finish our ministry as Editors of CORPUS REPORTS with the Winter 2023 issue.

We make this decision with a profound sense of gratitude. We have been gifted to work with such prophetic and visionary individuals, especially those who have served as CORPUS Board Members. We stand in awe of the gift of former editors (Frank Bonnike and Frank McGrath; Terry Dosh; Jim Magmer; Skip Sikora; and Saint David Gawlik). Multos Kudos to our exemplary proofreaders, Paul Ackerman and Paul Berres. But above all, thank you to those who have sent in articles, reflections, resources, ideas and constructive criticism. CORPUS REPORTS is truly a reflection of the CORPUS Community.

Now it is up to you and the Holy Spirit to determine the future course. We will "stand ready to serve" as mentors in the coming year for anyone who hears the call.

In the meantime, continue to reflect, write, and share what CORPUS means to you and above all, the church which we love!

For comments, suggestions or letters of interest, please contact Nick DeLosReyes (contact information on back page).

Namaste!!