"Light it Up with the Magic of Christmas"

Join us for a day full of

Christmas FESTIVITIES

& Lowell's Annual Night-Time Santa PARADE

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4TH

- Christmas Shopping Throughout Historic Lowell - All Day.
- Rogue River Artisans 38th Annual Fine Art and Craft Holiday Show at Lowell High School, 11700 Vergennes featuring over 100 juried artisans, $2 admission, 9am-4pm.
- Friends of The Englehardt Library Book Sale in the Englehardt LIbrary Community Room from 9:30am to 5pm. Hard cover books $1. Paperback books $.50.
- Live Nativity at Heidi's Farmstand 11999 Cascade Rd 11am to 3pm. Interact with Mary, Joseph, Shepherds, Wise Men & Angels dressed in historical costume and speaking in first person about their experiences surrounding Jesus' birth. Participants who talk with all 5 characters and hear their part of the story will get a free donut & hot chocolate. 616-648-2712 www.heidisfarmstand.com
- Santa Visits on Lowell Showboat VI located on the Riverwalk Plaza, from 2:30pm to 4pm. Hot cookies and cocoa provided. With online photos by Bruce Doll. Suggested $2 donation.
- Rudolph's Craft Workshop in the Chamber (113 Riverwalk Plaza) from 2:30 to 4:30. Hosted by Curiosity Corner Preschool and the TOTS program for children ages 2 to 6 years. Come and enjoy some holiday crafts.
- Pancake Supper at the Kent County Fairgrounds King Building, 225 S Broadway from 4pm to 5:45pm. Suggested donation of $5 per adult and $3 per child. Donations benefit the Kent County Youth Fair. Eat dinner and take photos with Santa.
- Annual Night-Time Santa Parade: "Light it Up with the Magic of Christmas" Parade steps off from Riverside Drive and heads east on Main Street, ending at the Lowell United Methodist Church. Starts promptly at 6pm.

For a complete list of Lowell events, holiday shopping & eateries, visit www.discoverlowell.org

Presented by: LOWELL Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce

Funded by: City of Lowell DDA