Offertory	Christ the Lord Is Risen (Bach-Fettke)	Trinity Quartet
Scripture	Matthew 28:1-10	Taehwan Roh
After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, "He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him." This is my message for you.' So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, 'Greetings!' And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.'
Message	Listen to the Angel	Neil Hough
* Closing Hymn	The Day of Resurrection	UMH 303
* Benediction		Neil Hough
* Closing Music	Hornpipe from Water Music Suite (Handel)	Jerry Rich

Monday, April 21 — Matthew 27:50-66

When we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus on Easter Day, we begin by remembering that Jesus was crucified on Good Friday. That's because the death and resurrection of Jesus are inseparable. Appreciating the miracle of resurrection requires that we experience the finality of Jesus' death on the cross and burial in the tomb. Matthew, and the other Gospel writers, want to make sure we understand that Jesus died (that he wasn't just in a coma or simply appeared to have died).

- Spend time today reflecting on the finality and certainty of death. What thoughts and emotions come to mind? What kind of messiah-king would allow himself to suffer the way Jesus suffered? What kind of messiah-king would die the way Jesus died?
- Prayer: Almighty God, grant me wisdom to understand how Jesus' death and resurrection makes a difference in my life and in the world around me. Teach me your ways. Amen.

Tuesday, April 22 — Matthew 28:1-10

The message given to the women at the tomb included these words: "He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him" (Matthew 28:7). This is an amazing promise. The living Christ goes before us. We are never alone. Wherever we go, he is already present. Even when we are blind to Jesus' presence, he is with us always. (See Matthew 28:20.)

- When, where, and how have you been aware of Jesus' presence today? What might you do to increase your awareness that the living Christ is already present, wherever you go?
- Prayer: Living God, thank you for promising to meet me wherever I go. There is no place I can go that you are not already there. Help me be fully aware of your presence. Amen.

Wednesday, April 23 — Matthew 28:11-20

The final verses of Matthew's Gospel describe two possible responses to the Good News of Easter. One option is to resist God's purposes like the religious leaders who were afraid of Jesus and his followers and attempted to discredit the reports of Jesus' resurrection by paying the soldiers to give false witness. The other option is to accept the mission Jesus offers us — as Easter people — to, "Go . . . make disciples of all nations . . ." (Matthew 28:19ff).

- Most of us have a variety of responses to Jesus over the course of our lives. How will you respond to Jesus today? Will you resist his call and keep him at arm's length? Or will you accept his commission to continue his ministry on earth?
- Prayer: Merciful God, forgive me for all the times I have resisted or even rejected your call in my life. Today, I choose to serve you and go wherever your Son sends me. Amen.

Thursday, April 24 — Acts 10:34-43

For more than 2,000 years, the Church has proclaimed the Good News that God's resurrection power has been unleashed in the world. Sometimes we forget that the resurrection of Jesus was an outrageous claim. In telling the story, the first disciples declared that Jesus' resurrection not only validated his message and his ministry, but it also confirmed their own ministry. We believe the message of God's forgiveness (Acts 10:43) because we are Easter people. We trust the promise of salvation — by grace, through faith (Ephesians 2:8) — because we are Easter people.

- How does the Easter story affect your trust in Jesus' Gospel promises? How does the Easter story affect your willingness to be one of Jesus' disciples?
- Prayer: God of Love, I believe that Jesus died and was raised from death to life so that I might experience your saving grace. Today I affirm that I will be a disciple of Jesus. Amen.

Friday, April 25 — Romans 8:18-25

Christians are Easter people. It's why we worship on the first day of the week and why we consider every Sunday to be a "little Easter". We believe that through Jesus' death and resurrection, God has defeated the power of sin and death. We believe that, through Good Friday and Easter, we are "set free . . . and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God" (Romans 8:21). God sets us free to live faithfully and obediently in the present as we look hopefully to a future that is securely in God's hands. We can live faithfully and obediently because we are no longer limited by our fear of failure and our fear of death.

- How has your celebration of Easter impacted your life? In what ways are you experiencing God's (Easter) freedom this week?
- Prayer: Gracious God, with your help, I accept the freedom and power you give me to resist evil and oppression, to follow Jesus, and to serve him as my Lord. Amen.

Saturday, April 26 — Revelation 21:1-7

The Good News of Easter is that nothing is impossible for God (see Acts 2:24 and Matthew 19:26). That means that we can trust God's promises for a glorious future. We can live our lives in confidence and faith (see Ephesians 3:11-12) that God will answer our (daily) prayer that God's Kingdom will come on earth, as it is in heaven. The final chapters of the Bible describe God's victory over evil, over the power of sin and death. They describe in vivid detail how God, through Christ, is "making all things new" (Revelation 21:5).

- As Easter people, we experience the transforming power of God's love and grace. In what ways have you experienced the transforming power of God this week?
- Prayer: Eternal God, continue to transform my life today. Let your will be done in my life. Let your Kingdom come on earth. Make all things new, starting with me. Amen.
