Call to Worship

Lord of Light and Mercy, be with us this day as we again hear the stories of faith and sight. Help us to believe in your abiding presence with us, both in our darkness and in the light which you bring. Give us courage and strength to witness to your resurrection. For we offer this in Jesus' Name, amen.

Scripture

Galatians 5:13-26

Keith Lee

For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, competing against one another, envying one another.

A Life Worth Living

The Bible uses many agricultural images to describe the kind of life that God intends for humanity, specifically that human beings – when fully connected to God – will bear fruit. The New Testament teaches us that when we are filled with the Holy Spirit we will bear the fruit of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. These are characteristics of a God-centered, God-inspired life – A Life Worth Living. In this three sermon series, we'll learn more about God's vision for our lives and how we might cultivate and bear the fruit of God's Spirit.

Pastor's Bible Study

The Old Testament story of Jonah goes back many centuries, but its lessons are very relevant for our lives today. Like Jonah, we hesitate to respond to God's call. Sometimes we run away. Like Jonah, we may find ourselves angry with God, yet God never gives up on us. Over the four weeks of this study, we will let Jonah's experience teach us as we answer and obey God's call to serve God's purposes in the world.
