Prelude	Air in D , BWV 1068 (Bach)	Jerry Rich
Welcome and Announcements		Clergy
* Call to Worship		Eileen Gilmer
We come together this day, drawn by the light of God's love! In God's eternal kingdom, darkness and despair are vanquished. In God's eternal realm, peace and hope reign! Let all the people praise God with their music and their voices! Let all the people praise God with their deeds of loving-kindness! Praise be to God. Amen.
* Gathering Hymn	O Church of God, United	UMH 547
Children's Message		Laurie Strollo
Prayers of the People		Gilmer
Offering		Neil Hough
This morning's offering will be received as we pass the offering plates. You may also give online at http://umtrinity.org/give and through our app. On the website, scroll down and click on SET UP ONLINE GIVING.
Anthem (8:30) Anthem (10:30)	Spirit of God (Scots melody, arr. Walker) God That Madest Earth and Heaven (Thorne)	Catherine Wethington Ensemble
Scripture	Romans 13:8-10	Gilmer
Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not murder; you shall not steal; you shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.
Message	The Greatest Commandment: Love Neighbor	Neil Hough
The Sacrament of Holy Communion (8:30)		Gilmer
* Closing Hymn	Sent Forth by God's Blessing	UMH 664
* Benediction		Hough
Closing Music	Voluntary in D , op. 6 no. 4 (Stanley)	Rich

* Please stand as you are able.

Grow – Pray – Study

Things I'd like to remember from today's message:

Monday, May 23 — Leviticus 19:9-18

The Old Testament Book of Leviticus has been called the “manual of the priests” and was traditionally used as a resource for teaching Jewish children about the Jewish faith. It contains laws that encompass all aspects of individual and community life in Israel: everything from worship rituals to dietary regulations. In chapter 19, we learn about living a holy life.

- At the heart of the chapter are these familiar words: “you shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Leviticus 19:18). How might these words guide your actions this week? How will you love your neighbor today?
- Prayer: Eternal God, thank you for teaching me your ways. Help me to understand what is important to you. Give me courage to live the holy life you desire for me. Amen.

Tuesday, May 24 — Deuteronomy 15:7-11

Leviticus 19 is not the only chapter in the Torah (the first 5 books in the Old Testament) that describes God's intentions for relationships with neighbors. Deuteronomy 15 insists that God's people not be "hard-hearted or tight-fisted" (Deuteronomy 15:7). Instead, we are to "give liberally and be ungrudging" (Deuteronomy 15:10). The message is clear: God desires mercy, compassion, and generosity.

- What do you think about this teaching? How will you respond?
- Prayer: Compassionate God, remind me of your amazing grace and inspire in me the desire to extend your mercy and compassion to my neighbors and people in need. Amen.

Wednesday, May 25 — Luke 10:25:37

When Jesus was tested by a lawyer (an expert in Jewish law), he (Jesus) affirmed that God's primary desire is that we love God and love our neighbor. But the lawyer asked a very important follow-up question: "who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). Like the lawyer, we want to set limits on God's requirement that we love our neighbor. What we discover is that Jesus' definition of a neighbor is quite different than ours.

- Remember: Samaritans and Israelites had a contentious relationship. They would more likely have been enemies than “neighbors.” So, how will you embody Jesus’ teaching in your life today?
- Prayer: God of Love, teach me to see other people the way you see them. Teach me to treat others the way you want me to treat them. Teach me to be a good neighbor. Amen.

Thursday, May 26 — Romans 13:8-10

According to his letters and the tradition of the Church, the Apostle Paul took Jesus' teaching and example quite seriously. Writing to the Church in Rome he insisted that all of the commandments "are summed up in this word: 'Love your neighbor as yourself'" (Romans 13:9).

- What is the single commandment that guides your life? What would change in your life if “love your neighbor as yourself” was your primary guide for your words and actions?
- Prayer: Merciful God, I confess that I do not always obey your teaching and love my neighbors as myself. Forgive me I pray. Transform my life according to your word. Amen.

Friday, May 27 — Galatians 5:13-15

Being saved by God's grace through faith (see Ephesians 2:8) does not set us free from having to obey God's law. Instead, God's grace sets us free so that we can obey God's law and live the life that God intends for us, a life of joy and abundance, a life of grace and peace: a life of love.

- Review your words and actions over the past few days. How well have you obeyed God's command to "love your neighbor as yourself"? (Galatians 5:14). What would like to do differently next week? What will you do differently next week?
- Prayer: Almighty God, do not let me use the gift of freedom for my own purposes. Instead, transform my life so that I can obey your great commandment to love my neighbor. Amen.

Saturday, May 28 — John 15:12-17

In his final words to his disciples, Jesus gave them “a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another” (John 13:34). It turns out that the phrase “love one another” occurs four different times in Jesus’ final instructions. This means that it is important and that we should take it seriously.

- If we are Jesus' disciples, we will bear the fruit of love. What is one way that you will "go and bear fruit" today? (John 15:16)
- Prayer: God of Grace, thank you for Jesus. Thank you for sending him to be my Savior and friend. With your help I will bear the kind of fruit – love – that will last. Amen.

Today's hymn texts for those worshipping at home.

O Church of God, United

1. O church of God, united
to serve one common Lord,
proclaim to all one message,
with hearts in glad accord.
Christ ever goes before us;
we follow day by day
with strong and eager footsteps
along the upward way.
2. From every land and nation
the ordered ranks appear;
to serve one valiant leader
they come from far and near.
They chant their one confession,
they praise one living Lord,
and place their sure dependence
upon his saving word.
3. Though creeds and tongues may differ,
they speak, O Christ, of thee;
and in thy loving spirit
we shall one people be.
Lord, may our faithful service
and singleness of aim proclaim to all the power
of thy redeeming name.
4. May thy great prayer be answered
that we may all be one,
close bound, by love united
in thee, God's blessed Son:
to bring a single witness,
to make the pathway bright,
that souls which grope in darkness
may find the one true light.

Sent Forth by God's Blessing

1. Sent forth by God's blessing,
Our true faith confessing,
The people of God from this dwelling take leave.
The service is ended. Oh, now be extended
The fruits of our worship in all who believe.
The seed of the teaching,
Receptive souls reaching,
Shall blossom in action for God and for all.
God's grace did invite us, and love shall unite us
To work for God's kingdom and answer the call.
2. With praise and thanksgiving
To God ever living,
The tasks of our everyday life we will face.
Our faith ever sharing, In love ever caring,
Embracing God's children of each tribe and race.
With your grace You feed us,
With your light now lead us;
Unite us as one in this life that we share.
Then may all the living
With praise and thanksgiving
Give honor to Christ and that name that we bear.
