Living as Disciples of Christ – Growing in Heart and Mind – Even Virtually!

Adult Studies is an opportunity for faith formation and transformation offered by First Presbyterian Church of Burlington, North Carolina. Our hope is to foster lifelong spiritual growth for our congregation and our community.

On behalf of the Adult Studies Team, you are invited to take a moment to review the many course selections for the upcoming Christian Education year.

We pray as you make a commitment to your spiritual nurture and faith development, that you may bear fruit in every good work and grow in your knowledge of God.

Since the day we heard about you, we haven't stopped praying for you and asking for you to be filled with the knowledge of God's will, with all wisdom and spiritual understanding. We're praying this so that you can live lives that are worthy of the Lord and pleasing to him in every way: by producing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God.

SUNDAYS

Sunday Morning (Ongoing)

The Point

Room 227

We are professionals and students, parents and friends, and we are committed to asking hard questions of faith and walking together in love. For everything we do and everything we are, we ask "What's the POINT?" and we know better than to expect answers. What we do know is that the point — the purpose — of our study and worship and fellowship and faith journeying is that God has called us into Christian community and that we are doing our best to live out that call. We are opening our hearts and opening our minds to be a part of whatever God has called for with this zany and wonderful group of people. Join us as we search, pray, and discover as "The Point." Join our Facebook group!

The John Knox Fellowship

John Knox Room

Drawing on scripture, denominational tenets and a quest to understand God's call to us in the world, this class combines lecture and discussion in a weekly format for adults of all ages. Led by a team of class members and guest speakers, this group has varied interests and aspirations, a commitment to life-long learning, friendly relations and open communications. Whether it is exploring particular scripture, a Christian perspective on social issues, a General Assembly position paper or the Holy Land as an armchair tourist, participants seek to grow in their faith as they commit to being active disciples in the world. This call to service is demonstrated through missions and special class projects. We have occasional social gatherings, group trips and discussions that build strong personal relationships in this community of faith.

Enrichment Class

Room 228

For over 25 years, this class has studied a variety of topics from atonement to world religions. The discussion-based class, led by Henry Carrouth and Bill Massey, runs year-round, even in the summer months. Everyone is encouraged to share opinions as we affirm each other on this faith journey. The Epiphany party held each January is one of the social events for the class. We actively support missions, like rebuilding New Orleans after Katrina or building a wheelchair ramp for a local cancer patient or adopting a Christmas cheer family. This is a place to grow your faith and build new relationships.

SUNDAYS

John Knox Fellowship: Understanding Revelation Sundays, October 4, 11, 18, 25 (pre-recorded) — Led by Dr. Mickey Efird

One of the most misunderstood and misused (even abused!!!) books of our entire Bible is The Book of Revelation (no s, please). It is one of a number of curious books, known as apocalyptic, which were written in the late post-exilic period of Jewish history and was taken up by early Christians. In our Scripture we only have two examples of this type of literature, Daniel 7-12 and The Book of Revelation. This study will try to unravel some of the mis-interpretations of that mysterious book and make sense of its message for today. To be honest, its message is quite appropriate for what is going on in the world in general and in our country in particular. It is fun to study and its message is powerful for Christians today.

SUNDAYS

Poetry Class: *Selected Poetry of John Donne

Sundays, October 4–November 22

11:30 a.m. in-person in Mary Helen Long Garden

Led by Dr. Harry Brown

John Donne (1572-1631) is the most important of the seventeenth-century English metaphysical poets, including George Herbert, Andrew Marvell, and Richard Crashaw. He was born into an old Catholic family in an era when Catholics endured discrimination, but he became Anglican, developed into one of the greatest preachers of his day, and served as Dean of St. Paul's. We will read poems selected primarily from Songs and Sonnets and Holy Sonnets. The more worldly and secular poems — often love poems — sometimes have spiritual themes. Donne's poetry is not conventional or traditional in imagery, language, or theme. It is colloquial/conversational, dramatic, intellectual, psychological, and challenging. His poems are sometimes arguments in form. They use unusual comparisons — "conceits" — and avoid pretty, flowery imagery and mellifluous, regular meter. We will use John Donne's Poetry: A Norton Critical Edition (Second or Third Edition). Used paperback copies can be purchased on Amazon.

Please bring your own chair to this class.

Current Study: Into the Light, Finding Hope Through Prayers of Lament by P. Lynn Miller with suggestions for leaders by Dee Koza.

The 2020-2021 PW/Horizons Bible Study revives lament as a proper theological response to the difficult situations of our world. One of the foundational points of the study is that, in scripture, lament usually leads to hope. After crying out to God, the one who laments remembers God. And while that doesn't fix things in the moment - the injustice, the loss, and the wrong still exist - the one who laments is strengthened to face the world and to hope. When we lament, we move from suffering to faith. In our faith there is hope. We lament in order to hope. Recovering lament may be one of the church's most timely gifts to the world. Explore lament with PW!.
