

BIOGRAPHIES OF NEW NOMINEES

Jerry Jacobs

Jerry is a retired social worker, specializing in community organizing and administration. His initial career was Jewish Community Center administration; he was on the management team that opened the JCC in Newton. After raising two children with learning disabilities, Jerry became a special education advocate, primarily for students with behavioral and emotional disabilities, and led training and parent support groups.

Jerry joined LLAIC several years ago so that he could continue to learn and meet new friends. He serves on the Operations Committee. He loves running the LLAIC current events group filled with bright, passionate and opinionated members. He looks forward to the time that we can meet in person again, eating two slices of cheesy pizza! Jerry lives in Needham.
