

JOB TITLE: Pre-Admission Testing (PAT) Registered Nurse	DEPARTMENT: Surgical Services	POSITION OF SUPERVISOR: Director of Surgical Services
FLSA STATUS: Non-exempt	ANTICIPATED HOURS PER WEEK: 40	EFFECTIVE DATE:

Position Summary: The PAT RN is responsible for the planning, coordination, screening, and pre-procedure orientation for all of the patients undergoing a planned surgical/procedural event. The PAT RN serves as the facilitator of communications within the multi-disciplinary team. The PAT RN will evaluate each patient to identify perioperative and intraoperative risks or problems, so that they may be avoided. In addition, the PAT RN will work directly with anesthesia providers and surgeons to determine necessary safety screening criteria and pre-op teaching standards. This role is required to perform the full pre-surgical history either over the phone or via a scheduled onsite PAT nurse appointment in conjunction with an anesthesia provider (as needed). The PAT RN helps to arrange medical consultations for patients, if necessary. All the pre-operative teaching and coordination of teaching with other departments in the hospital is managed by this position. Surgical prep instructions, including but not limited to, NPO requirements, medications to be taken on the morning of surgery, and anesthesia options will be covered routinely. The PAT RN will ensure that all ordered diagnostic tests and labs are completed by the patient in a timely manner. The PAT RN is a member of the Surgical Services team and will be expected to crosstrain to other roles as assigned such as the PreOp/PACU RN Circulator RN roles.
