

Quality Matters-Rural Hospital Solutions

Russell Kohl, MD, FAAFP
Chief Medical Officer

TMF Learning & Action Networks

Amb. Surgical Care Centers

Critical Access Hospitals

Health Educators

Emergency Departments

FQHC's

Home Health Agencies

Hospices

Hospitals

Inpatient Psychiatric

Inpatient Rehabilitation

LTAC

Outpatient Clinics

Pharmacists

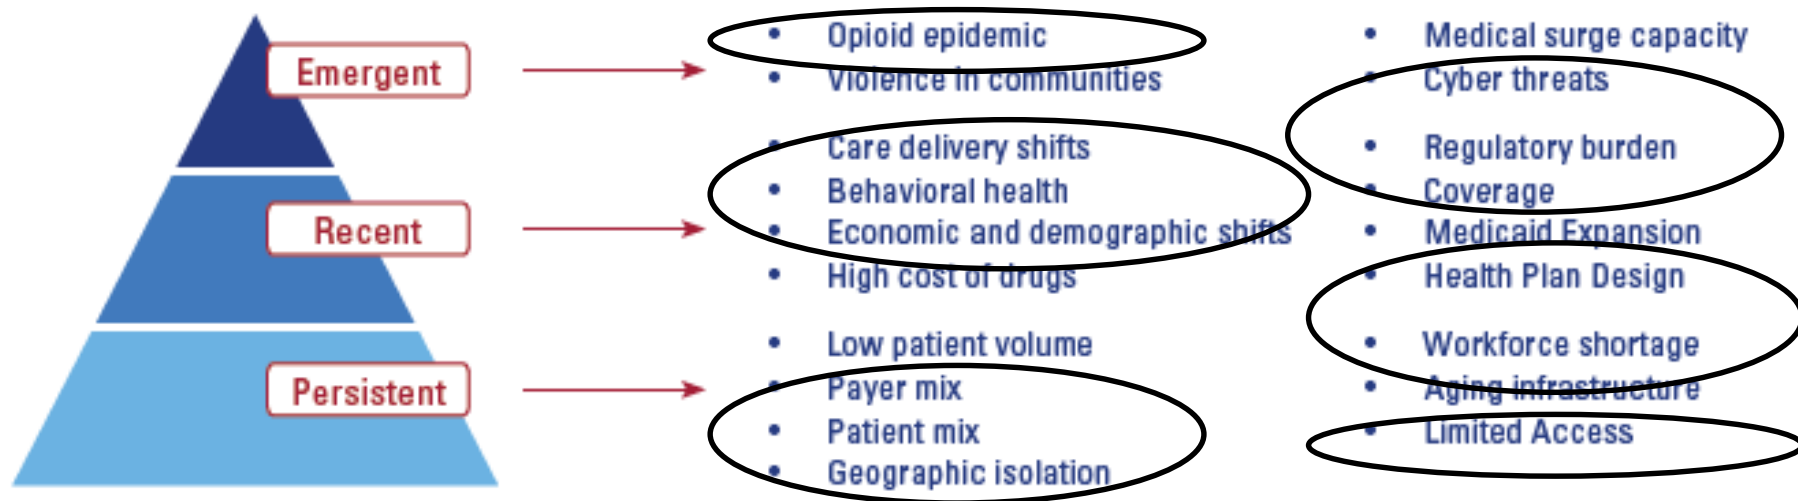

Rural Health Clinic

Urgent Care

TMF Programs of Interest

Quality Payment Program
Value-Based Improvement and Outcomes
Health for Life – Everyone with Diabetes Counts
Antibiotic Stewardship
Medication Safety
Readmissions
Cardiovascular Health and Million Hearts
Immunizations
Behavioral Health
Value-Based Improvement and Outcomes

Challenges Facing Rural Hospitals & Communities

As challenges facing rural hospitals intensify, accumulate and compound each other, many confront difficult decisions, including whether to reduce services or even close. Moreover, today's issues may hinder rural providers' preparedness for the challenges of tomorrow. Between 2010 and 2018, 95 rural hospitals have closed, and several of these closures have resulted in a complete loss of local access to care.

Questions / Discussion

Russell Kohl, MD

Chief Medical Officer

TMF Health Quality Institute

Russell.Kohl@TMF.org

405-706-3821