SPEAKER:

PROTECTING DEMOCRACY

Neal Katyal has argued over 50 cases to the U.S. Supreme Court. His most recent success was the 6-3 decision on the Tariff case in which the court struck down the Trump Tariff program. The New York Times reported that the Tariff case was the most important ruling in this century. He also successfully defended the constitutionality of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

He has been on the list of the top 200 lawyers every year in the Law Dragon Magazine from 2005 to 2026 and by Forbes magazine in 2024. He served as Acting U.S. Solicitor General in the Clinton administration. Mr. Katyal has argued more Supreme Court cases in U.S. history as a minority lawyer, surpassing Thurgood Marshall. He has received many awards among them the highest civilian award given by the Department of Justice, the Edmund J. Randolph Award.

In addition to his work as a lawyer, he is a Professor at Georgetown University.
