The Marin Food Bank is an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501(c)(3) under the Internal Revenue Code. We solicit surplus food products and distribute them to over 600 partner agencies and through our network of neighborhood pantries. Donations are distributed under the following conditions:

- * Donated products are distributed only to member agencies with copies of an exemption letter issue used by the IRS on file at the Marin Food Bank.
- * Donated food products are to be used by member agencies only in a manner related to their exempt purpose in compliance with IRS provisions of Section 170 © (3).
- * Donated foods are not to be sold, transferred or bartered in exchange for money or services.
- * Donated foods will be made available as soon as possible to ensure freshness and palatability.
- * The Marin Food Bank maintains records as required by Treasury regulations and will make such records available to the IRS upon written request.
