Refrain

Just as he spoke the first Word, God al - so speaks the last.
 The won - der - ful out-flow - ing Of care that we per-ceive. God came and
 In prayer and la - men - ta - tion Where grief no long - er lies.

shared our sor - rows, He's with us in our weep - ing, He's pre-sent Notes: in his various interviews, the Archbishop of Canterbury reflected on the terrible milestone of 100,000 deaths from COVID-19. The words of this hymn focus on hope as the nation remembers people 'known to God and cherished by God.' Yet, we live in hope knowing that 'death doesn't have the last word.' The music may be sung in unison or harmony. A melody edition is available separately.
