

Sharon Butler
EVP Global Education

As Executive Vice President of Global Education at Flywire, Sharon brings over 22 years of experience in sales and customer success and currently leads the global sales and account management teams across ten offices globally for Flywire's Education vertical. Sharon has been a pioneer in the education payment space and helped to evangelize on a global scale the importance of the student payment experience and choice for education based payments. As Flywire's first employee she has not only built and scaled Flywire's Education sales and client success teams across the globe, but also championed educational cross border payments to lead Flywire to a presence representing over 1,700 education clients across 240 countries and territories.

Sharon's deep understanding of the education markets have enabled not only world class cross border payment options, but also the expansion of Flywire's full comprehensive receivables offerings to serve clients payment needs.

Prior to joining Flywire, Sharon held roles as North East Regional Sales Director for Tuition Management Systems, and District Sales Director for SkyTel, a division of Verizon Business and leading wireless technology provider. Sharon has a degree in Communications with a minor in Business from Bridgewater State University
