

Lori Snow – Bio

Lori Snow is an enthusiastic career-long finance and treasury professional who has worked in Fortune 100 corporate environments, commercial banking, local government agencies, and for the last 8 years in higher education at Stanford University now as Assistant Treasurer, Cash Management & Operations reporting to the Treasurer. As an entrepreneur she was the founder and Managing Partner for the now-defunct Treasury Intelligence, Inc., advocating for clients to lower their banking costs and gain operating efficiencies in their businesses.

While living in South Africa, she completed her MBA in Finance at the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg. She is a Certified Treasury Professional (CTP) with the Association of Financial Professionals. Earlier she completed her undergraduate degree in Economics at the State University of New York at Albany.

She regularly volunteers for non-profits and has served on the Board of the San Francisco Treasury Management Association. She was formerly on the board of the Rocky Mountain AFP and the San Mateo County Treasury Oversight Committee. She moved to the Bay Area from Denver, Colorado to be closer to family and indulge her passion for hiking in the Redwoods. She has three unique and talented children.
