In Their Shoes: Building Empathy for Those Experiencing Harm in Relationships

March 23, 2021 from 2:30pm-3:30pm

Activity Facilitators:

Susan Pieters, Between Friends Adult Education Coordinator and Cam Beltran, Between Friends Art Therapy Intern

In Their Shoes* is an experiential activity that builds empathy and understanding of domestic violence dynamics, the cycle of harm, and barriers experienced by those being harmed. The activity allows participants to walk in the shoes of a survivor. Participants move, act, think, and make choices as a person navigating an unsafe or harmful relationship.
