“Art of Hosting Institute”

Free Two Day Training, both days Mandatory

Thursday February 6th and Friday February 7th, 2020

9:00 am- 4:30pm

At the Villa Guadalupe Community Room

South Chicago Network Art of Hosting- Café Training Institute: The Café Training Institute is a two day experiential training that prepares staff and community members to bring the café conversations to their own program, centers and community. During the institute, the participants deepen their knowledge and skills--- including a deeper understanding of how to foster trust, positive relationships and sense of belonging through, meaningful dialogue.

Participants will increase their interpersonal skills necessary to plan, organize, and serve as hosts and /or facilitators for community café conversations. Participants must complete both days of training to receive a certificate. Breakfast and Lunch provided.
