Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba
Treaty Education Scholarship Fund

What is the Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba? Created through a partnership between the Assembly and Manitoba Chiefs and Canada, the Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba aims to strengthen, rebuild, and enhance the Treaty Relationship between First Nations and the Crown (Canada). We educate, facilitate discussion, and conduct research on Treaties.

About the "Treaty Education Scholarship Fund." The Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba (TRCM) has provided Treaty Education training for over 10 years to thousands of professionals in the education field. The TRCM wants to build upon the wonderful work that the Teachers and Schools have done to promote Treaty Education by establishing a Treaty Education Scholarship Fund.
