On behalf of the Indigenous Circle of the National Film Board of Canada's Education team, we are looking for young (up to 27 years old) artistic Indigenous voices to illustrate some of the activities in the learning program we're developing.

This project aims not only to celebrate and honor Indigenous cultures, but also to nurture and cultivate emerging talents, providing a platform where they can shine and grow.

Their work will make a significant contribution to educating, inspiring, and fostering a greater appreciation and understanding of Indigenous perspectives.

We are currently looking for people to illustrate the "Starwoman" creation story and the "Wahkohtowin" concept.

We're particularly looking for artists who have a personal understanding and connection to these stories and philosophies, so that they can convey them with passion, respect, and authenticity.

If you are interested in this opportunity, or know artists who might be, please feel free to share this message and contact us for more information.

Please send your portfolio and any other relevant material to Sophie Quevillon at s.quevillon@nfb.ca by November 30, 2023.

Thank you for your attention and interest in this exciting project.
