

OSHA 10 Hour Construction Safety Elements

Hosted by the Canton Service Office

Who should attend: Individuals involved in the Construction Industry. This includes public and private employers.

What you will learn:

- Effective safety and health evaluation of construction sites;
- Hazard recognition skills and possible solutions to construction safety issues;
- How to use and implement the rules & recommendations of OSHA's CFR part 1926

After this course, you will be able to:

- Recognize risk factors related to construction worksites;
- Suggest control measures to mitigate risk factors;
- Interpret rules for OSHA's CFR part 1926 as it applies to your workplace

Location: BWC Canton Service Office
339 E Maple St.
N. Canton, Ohio 44720

Instructors:
BWC Safety Consultants

Dates: Tuesday, February 20 and
Wednesday, February 21, 2024 (must attend both days)
8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Free to Ohio Employers

Cost:

Credits:

BWC is accredited by IACET to offer CEU's (1.0). You will also be issued an OSHA 10 hour construction card

Enroll at www.bwclearningcenter.com