CAL FIRE NEWS RELEASE

California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection

MEDIA CONTACT:
Jason Hoppin
jason.hoppin@santacruzcounty.us

RELEASE DATE: January 26, 2021
1:30pm

EVACUATION WARNINGS ISSUED TO AREAS IN SANTA CRUZ COUNTY

WHAT: Evacuation warning issued

WHEN: Effective Immediately

WHERE: Last Chance Road Area
(Zones: FEL- E003D and CRZ-E002A)

NOTES: Due to the potential for debris flow, your zone is being placed under an EVACUATION WARNING

Temporary Evacuation Points (TEP) are established at:
San Lorenzo Valley High School
7105 Hwy 9, Felton, CA 95018

Scotts Valley Community Center
360 Kings Village Road, Scotts Valley, CA 95066

Pacific Elementary School
50 Ocean Street, Davenport, CA 95017

There will be space for extended car parking, and the Red Cross will be available for assistance. There will also be bathrooms, charging stations and refreshments and pet food at each location. For more, visit:
Santa Cruz County Temporary Evacuation Center

A call center has been set up at (831) 454-2181.

An Evacuation Order (RED) means that danger is imminent, and people should leave the area immediately.
An Evacuation Warning (YELLOW) means that there is a high potential for danger, and people should be ready to leave at a moment's notice.
An Evacuation Advisory (BLUE) means that the area has been identified to have a potential risk, but has not been elevated to a warning status.

To sign up for CODE RED ALERTS from Santa Cruz County, follow this link: SCR911.org
www.scr911.org

CHECK YOUR ZONE: Zonehaven Community Evacuation Interface
www.community.zonehaven.com