TARKETT'S APPROACH TO SUSTAINABILITY WHEN ASKING "WHY TARKETT HOME?

Tarkett's business as a whole encompasses their careful approach to sustainability, which consists of three main areas of focus:
1. Their commitment to creating a circular economy - closing the loop on waste, preserving the planet's natural resources and reduces the impact on climate change.
2. Their commitment to only using good materials.
3. Their commitment to the consumer's health and wellbeing by creating healthy indoor spaces with the highest standards of Indoor Air Quality.

Tarkett believes in doing good together. NRF believes in doing good together with Tarkett.

Breathe-Easy™ Flooring only from Tarkett

Steps to effectively allergy-proof your home are right under your nose – or feet to be exact. Their ultra-low VOC flooring exceeds all indoor air quality standards for schools and hospitals so you know it's safe for your family.
