

Multiplying Our Mission

North Shore Presbyterian Church | Shared Kitchen

Our Shared Kitchen serves as an extension of our communion table, allowing us to be good neighbors through meaningful community partnerships that embody a Loaves and Fishes mission.

North Shore's First Shared Kitchen

The North Shore Presbyterian Church (NSPC) Shared Kitchen is a dynamic hub for food entrepreneurs located in downtown Shorewood, designed to help food businesses build and grow while providing an opportunity to enrich the North Shore Community.

Modernized Facilities

Provides the community with a newly updated, fully-functional commercial kitchen.

Premier and Professional

Features commercial-grade equipment,

Strategic Downtown Location

Situated in the heart of Shorewood.

What is a Shared Kitchen?

A shared kitchen is a licensed, fully-equipped commercial food facility that multiple culinary businesses or entrepreneurs pay to use on a daily, or hourly basis to prepare and cook food products.

Avoid High Costs

Allows chefs, bakers, and food truck operators to avoid high capital costs of building their own kitchens.

Launch and Grow

Provides a pathway for food entrepreneurs to launch and grow their businesses.

Growth Sector

Shared kitchens are a dynamic sector that continues to grow.

Value for North Shore Business Leaders

First licensed, commercial-grade hub for food entrepreneurs in the North Shore, providing a professional space to build and grow local businesses.

First-of-Its-Kind Regional Resource

Fills a critical infrastructure gap for food entrepreneurs who require a licensed space for wholesale and mass distribution.

Facilitates Small Business Growth

Reduces barriers to entry for food entrepreneurs, with lower financial risk. Creates a pipeline for economic development with food businesses.

Builds a Resilient Food Ecosystem

Connects entrepreneurs with professional networks for facilitating the marketing of locally produced food products.

Advances Corporate Goodwill

Allows business leaders to meet their community investment goals and provides compelling social media content.

Making Our Mission Possible

The North Shore Presbyterian Church invites business leaders to contribute financially to the Shared Kitchen project to foster a strong business community and advance their outreach goals. Such a thorough transformation of the kitchen represents a significant investment for the church.

It truly takes a village, and we appreciate your consideration. Contributions can be conveniently made on our website or scan the QR code below.
