

Physical therapist joins Aspirus Ironwood

IRONWOOD – Aspirus Health recently announced the addition of physical therapist Piersan Williams to its outpatient therapies team. She is now seeing patients at Aspirus Outpatient Therapies in Ironwood.

Williams earned her Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from Mayo Clinic College of Medicine and Science in Rochester, Minnesota, in May 2023. She specializes in helping people of all ages achieve greater independence in their daily activities and in the most individualized and compassionate ways possible, according to a press release.

Piersan
Williams

Williams has a special interest in neurological conditions, pediatrics and geriatrics. She is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA), and Michigan Physical Therapy Association (APTA) Academies of Neurologic and Pediatric Physical Therapy.

Williams lives in Ironwood. Her hobbies include cross country skiing, mountain biking, trail running and playing the violin, according to the release.

For more information, visit aspirus.org.